Do every act as an intent and loving service of the Divine Self of the World, putting your best into it in that way. Thus living, your struggles will gradually end, one by one, in victory. Success does not come without effort, without long and often repeated efforts, but the intensity and imposed necessity of the struggle, your very desire to make the effort, show you that there is already a "living power" within your heart that demands and will reward beyond all conception your strong and unfaltering service.—Katherine Tingley

LET us hope with that grander hope of the soul, the energy of right action, that the day is not far distant when the great sweeping force of Love—of true brotherliness, shall encompass humanity, when the knowledge of right living shall be in the grasp of all, and shall be lived in the truest sense of the word, when children shall be conceived and educated in the atmosphere of purest thought and grander action; then and not until then shall humanity commence to build the solid foundations of a Golden Age and work in the Kingdom of Freedom.—Katherine Tingley
