

Noted New York percussionist Jan Williams to perform at UCSD

October 11, 1988

Contact: Bonnie Harkins, Department of Music, 534-4830 or Alixandra Williams, Public Information Office, 534-3120

JAN WILLIAMS, NOTED NEW YORK PERCUSSIONIST, WILL PERFORM AT UCSD ON OCTOBER 16

World renowned contemporary percussion soloist and conductor Jan Williams will perform works by Morton Feldman, Elliott Carter, Charles Boone, Gustavo Matamoros, Frederic Rzewski and Michael Finnissy at 8 p.m. Sunday, October 16, in a concert to be held in the Mandeville Center, room B210. The works by Carter and Rzewski were written especially for Williams, who is a visiting professor of music at UCSD for the fall quarter from State University of New York (SUNY), Buffalo. General admission is $3, students $1, at the door. This concert is sponsored by the UCSD Department of Music.

(October 11, 1988)