NEW MEMBERS ELECTED TO DEAN OF ENGINEERING'S ADVISORY COUNCIL

A new chairman and vice-chairman of the Advisory Council to the Dean of the University of California, San Diego School of Engineering have been named, as well as five members of the council's executive committee.

The new chairman is Thomas Dillon, senior vice-president of the SAIC Defense Systems Group, and the new vice-chairman is Alek Mikolajczak, vice-president of engineering at Rohr Industries.

The new executive committee will be Thomas Casey, chairman, AUDRE; Richard Joy, general manager, Unisys; Scott McClendon, general manager, Hewlett-Packard; James Murray, president, Loral Terracom, and Gus Spikes, general manager, NCR.

The Dean's Advisory Council is a group of corporate leaders who meet regularly with Lea Rudee, dean of the Division of Engineering, to discuss ways in which engineering at UCSD can best meet the changing needs of the industrial community. The council also explores areas of mutual interest such as curriculum, research, and future plans.
