SUBJECT: New Academic Personnel Manual (APM) Section 011 (APM - 011), Academic Freedom, Protection of Professional Standards, and Responsibilities of Non-Faculty Academic Appointees

The University invites comments on Proposed New Academic Personnel Manual Section 011 (APM – 011), Academic Freedom, Protection of Professional Standards, and Responsibilities of Non-Faculty Academic Appointees.

Currently, APM - 010 (Academic Freedom) defines academic freedom as it pertains to faculty and defines the freedom of scholarly inquiry for students, as it derives from the faculty's academic freedom. APM - 015 (The Faculty Code of Conduct) defines the corresponding responsibilities as it pertains to faculty only. Although APM - 010 states that it is not intended to "diminish the rights and responsibilities enjoyed by other academic appointees," APM - 010 and APM - 015 do not address how these concepts apply or do not apply to non-faculty academic appointees. The proposed new policy is intended to address the academic privileges, rights, obligations, and responsibilities of non-faculty academic appointees.

The proposed new policy and supporting documentation are available at the following website:

This is a formal review of the proposed new policy. If you have comments or questions, please contact Kelly Lindlar, director of Academic Employee and Labor Relations, at klindlar@ucsd.edu no later than June 21, 2019.
