

Spring semester enrollment at UCSD

March 13, 1964

Enrollment for the Spring semester at the University of California, San Diego rose 34.9 per cent over the 1963 figure, President Clark Kerr has announced.

The campus enrolled 263 students. All are graduate students. In 1963, 195 were enrolled for the Spring semester.

Enrollment for the seven campuses of the University totals 61,705, an increase of 10.5 per cent over last Spring, President Kerr said. Largest of the campuses is Berkeley, where the Spring enrollment is 25,454, an increase of 7.4 per cent over Spring of 1963.