

Seminar in piano to be conducted by Howard Wells

January 15, 1973

The general public is invited to participate in a seminar in piano conducted by Howard Wells, noted California pianist, to be held Wednesdays from 9-11 a.m. at the University of California, San Diego.

The class will be held in 431 Humanities-Library Bldg. on the Revelle College campus.

Wells received his early training with Thilo Becker in Los Angeles. After three years in the Navy he continued his studies with Soulima Stravinsky at the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara. He has played in major cities in the United States, including a Town Hall recital in New York, and has toured extensively in Europe.

He has appeared as soloist with many orchestras and chamber organizations. He performed with the Los Angeles Philharmonic under Alfred Wallenstein, with the San Diego Symphony under Robert Shaw and Arthur Fiedler, and at the Los Angeles Bach Festival. He has also appeared with the Griller and Hollywood Quartets and with cellists Joseph Schuster and Pierre Fournier.

During the fall of this year, Wells appeared in the UCSD Connoisseur Concert Series. He has recorded a series with Lili Kraus, "From Bach to Bartok," for Educo Records. He is currently a visiting lecturer in the Music Department at UCSD.

(January 15, 1973)