REVELLE COLLEGE TO STAGE RENAISSANCE FAIRE APRIL 14

The excitement and pageantry of Elizabethan England will be recreated at the University of California, San Diego, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. April 14 on the south lawn of the Humanities Library, Revelle College. The public is invited.

The 10th annual Revelle Renaissance Faire, held in the past in conjunction with UCSD's Open House, this year is being staged in conjunction with "Admit Day" for prospective students.

An entirely student-run production, the Renaissance Faire includes fencing demonstrations, jugglers, magicians, puppet shows, a May pole dance, authentic jousting on the tournament field and musical performances throughout the day.

A marketplace will offer handmade crafts by local artisans, including clothing, bronze wind chimes, pottery and jewelry. Hearty food and drink will be available.
