HONORS AND AWARDS

Roberta J. Gimblett, director of Disabled Student Services at the University of California, San Diego, received two first place awards during a recent convention of the Association on Handicapped Student Services Programs in Postsecondary Education (AHSSPPE) in Minneapolis, Minn.

Gimblett was awarded a first place certificate for student leadership, and--in the public relations contest--for a letterhead, logo and T-shirt designed by student Joanne Stanley. Additionally, she presented a paper on "Peer Mentoring for Postsecondary Students with Disabilities."

AHSSPPE was formed to recognize quality work done by professionals in the field of disabled student services. More than 600 members attended the convention.
