Messrs. Glyn & Co.
Lombard Street
London

Sir

Rome, 16th October 1820

We have the satisfaction to inform you that your Commission for Paintings having been completed we have caused them to be shipped to Leghorn for the English Brig, Amys, bound to London, and by this post we send the Bill of Lading to your friends Messrs Fuller, in order that they may be the more successful in the arrival of the vessel.

Accordingly to your instructions we have with the consent of Mr. Gabrielle, paid the amount of them, and among in consequence, your account, for the Balance of which is £ 39. 12. 3. we this day draw upon Messrs Fuller, with persuasion that our draft will meet due honor

From your anxiety to return to England, we entertain with hope of seeing you again in this City, but trust you will on all occasions command our services which are much at your disposal

We remain, very truly

Yours most Obedient Servants
