NTN PROGRAMME PREMIER TWO MARRIAGES

"Two Marriages," premiers on NTN this Monday night at 7.30 pm. A warm, witty and mostly wise human drama about traditional values and their survival during the pressure of modern times.

The Daleys and the Armstrongs are the best of friends, although their personal situations are very different. Jim Daley, a blue collar worker, is a physical, affectionate and nurturing man, his modern outlook at times becoming entangled in his traditional roots. He supports his wife Ann, as a mother-woman-wife, though her education, career and friends can be intimidating.

Ann is an architectural engineer, an independent woman who understands the mechanics of life. She is occasionally envious of Nancy Armstrong who is always there when someone needs her. Although raised amidst the sophistication and culture of Chicago, Ann finds Iowa life far from simplistic, just simpler, richly textured, vital and full.

The Daley children do not have typical sibling relationships. Ann's appreciation of Iowa is not shared by Scott Morgan, Ann's son from a previous marriage, who is having difficulty adjusting to his new life and family. Kim was brought back from Vietnam by Jim after he had seen her mother killed. She is now the "all American Girl" who helps keep the household running smoothly, a job that is complicated by Jim and Ann's little boy, Willie.

Art Armstrong is a chief of surgery who settled in Iowa after medical school. He relied on his wife, Nancy, to help finance his education. As a successful doctor, he is usually preoccupied with his work, and realizes he is not always "there" for his children or easily able to express physical affection towards them.

Nancy is very successful in her work, which is administering to home and family. Although enjoying the family rewards she was raised to cherish, sometimes she wistfully observes her friend, Ann, who seems to be doing it all. At one time separated from Art, her marriage is still not always what she wishes it to be.

The Armstrongs' children include Shelby, very much Art's child, smart and sarcastic, and Eric, a typical kid and more the family diplomat than his sister could ever be.

These are stories of two families: The Daleys and the Armstrongs. Close neighbours, they rally to each other's support in an ongoing celebration of marriage, friendship and, of course, family.

Qld thrash NSW in state of origin match

NEW SOUTH WALES recent domination of the State of Origin series came to a halt on Tuesday night as Queensland scored a surprise 12-6 victory on a muddied Sydney Cricket ground.

The Maroons scored three tries to one in perhaps the most deceiving score line of the year, for it was the Blues who dominated play throughout.

But, before a parochial NSW crowd of 42,000, Queensland made most its opportunity to square the series and make the July 15 final match at Lang Park as the series decider.

And Queensland coach Wayne Bennett revealed after the match that he would have quit State of Origin football if the Maroons lost.

"If we had lost it would have been the end of the line for me as State of Origin coach," Bennett told RLN in a jubilant Queensland dressing room.

"I've been giving it best shot. But we've lost the last two series."

NSW opened the scoring with less than a minute of the clock when controversial Queensland referee Barry Gomersall penalised the Maroons for being offside after a kick up field. It was a penalty rarely seen in Sydney football, but NSW winger Michael O'Connor took full advantage of it with a neat penalty goal.

The Blues looked unstoppable in the opening minute, and notched their first, and only touch down after seven minutes.

Five eighth Brett Kenny scooped up a pass dropped by Queensland winger Dale Shearer five

Balmain bags Panasonic Cup but both teams fined $2,000

by Steve Mascord in Sydney
Special to Rugby League News

RUGBY LEAGUE capacity for good and bad was never more graphically illustrated than last Wednesday night's National Panasonic Cup final at the Parramatta Stadium.

For the record, it was a spectacular 14-12 victory for Balmain over Penrith in the mid-week competition's annual showpiece.

But it will be a couple of spiteful incidents that incurred a $2,000 fine on both clubs from the NSWRL and not the glitter of Parramatta First Cup final that will linger in its memory.

In the 54th minute, Balmain and Kangaroo fullback Garry Jack was considered lucky to be sentenced to five minutes in the sin bin, after an elbow incident involving Panthers' winger Mark Robinson.

"We just ran into each other — that's about all I know," Jack told RLN after the match.

Just before three-quarter time, the game erupted into an all out warfare when a side line clash between rival wingers John Davidson (Balmain) and David Liddiard (Penrith) became an all-in brawl.

The ensuing events led to the sin-binning of Davidson and team mate David Brooks and the Panthers' Liddiard and Mat Goodwin.

Balmain coach was at a loss of words to describe the rough tactics employed, which sickened the 16,823 crowd.

"It certainly was not employed by us, I can tell you," said Anderson, whose team overcame Port Moresby in its run to the cup finals.

Off-course it was not all fists and elbows, both sides played some exhilarating football. Scott Gale opened the scoring after seven minutes when he hoisted a magnificent bomb and snatched the ball from mid-air for a smart looking Tigers try.

But the eager, inexperienced Panthers were trying their hearts out and kept the massive television audience assured it was in for a contest.

In the fourth minute of the second quarter, young Andrew Fitzhenry gave the Panthers a valuable two points. Soon after Penrith was ruled offside when a Greg Alexander kick appeared certain to bag the Panthers a touchdown.

Balmain poured cold water on the underdogs enthusiasm six minutes before half time when, winger Russel Gartner scooted over in the corner after good lead up work from Paul Sironen and Paul Clarke, giving the Tigers a 12-2 half time stranglehold on the match.

"We won it early on when we got the lead," said Balmain captain, Wayne Pearce.

Balmain took home a cool $140,000 and Penrith $100,000 minus the $2,000, mind you. And rugby league came out of the game pretty much the same. It won 20, of credits.

Riverina to meet their match in PNG

RIVERINA division rugby league is one of the strongest outside the Sydney competition.

It is regarded as a "nursery" for players graduating to Sydney which is regarded as one the best competitions in the world.

Many of Riverina's top young players will be seen in action during a three game tour of PNG from June 18 to June 28.

Riverina meets Southern zone at Port Moresby on Sunday at 3pm, Northern zone at Lae at 7pm on Wednesday and the President's XIII at Goroka at 3pm on Saturday, June 27.

Riverina Division has won the NSW Country championships in 1960, 1975, 1982 and 1985.

It fared well in the titles this season only to be beaten 16-12 in a semi-final by the eventual winners, Northern Rivers.

Riverina has produced some of the top names in Sydney rugby league including the famous Mortimer brothers, Steven, Peter and Chris, Parramatta halfback Peter Sterling, and former champion fullback Greg Brentnall.

Brentnall is now the Riverina rugby league's fulltime development officer. Riverina's selectors feel there are a number of players in the touring party capable of making Sydney rugby league.

They include second rowers Geoff Simpson and Arthur Pappas and prop Michael Sturt, all of whom are still in their teens.

Riverina's teenage centre Andrew Clarke is one of the best movers in the division and the three games in PNG will be of enormous benefit to him.

The tourists have a fine blending of youth and experience under the guidance of respected coach Ron Pilon, who played with Balmain and North Sydney in Sydney competition.

Pilon was also coach of Country firsts which toured New Zealand and in May and played City (Sydney) first.

He will be relying on his captain and prop Mick Lewis, hooker Tony Morgan and second rower David Ivanoff heavily in the forwards.

The back's senior pair will be centres Peter McArthur and Alex Krause who is an excellent goal kicker. He has topped the points scoring in his club several times and also in his competition.

Fullback Bruce McMaster has represented Riverina previously while winger Colin Carroll and utility player Chris Suckling played in the NSW Country.

Sir,

Tarangau must be riding the crest of the wave after their humbling of Kone Tigers. But one fact that was obvious was that the referee Tom Pelis helped Tarangau to that win.

Mr Pelis awarded two 22 metre placed kicks to Tarangau when he should have awarded a goal line drop out and a scrum 5 metres from the try-line. Both the kicks resulted in 10 points for Tarangau.

In the first incident a bomb by Tigers was fumbled by Tarangau's Lakani Oala in the Tarangau goal area. Pelis awarded a 22 metre placed kick to Tarangau. The second incident occurred after the ball was wrestled from a Tigers' player and was thrown and fumbled in the in-goal area by Tarangau players.

These were elementary mistakes and such a high standing referee like Tom Pelis did not have any excuse in making these mistakes.

Those two errors virtually gave Tarangau the win. I should suggest here that in the future you (Mr Pelis) look at your books again before you take the whistle out onto the field.

Fair play supporter,
Port Moresby.

Choice of a coach unfair to nationals

Sir,

Allow me to register my displeasure at the way the PNGRLF is using some of our nationals to promote the superior whiteman image in this country. The incident I am referring to is the appointment of Barry Wilson as the coach of the Presidents 13 to play Riverina later this month.

On record Mr Wilson has been sacked by two clubs in the Port Moresby competition for not producing the goods in the club's "A" grade sides in the last six months. A record in itself.

What has the rugby league fraternity in this nation got to gain by appointing a Presidents 13 coach who has a "proven" track record? What is lacking in Steve Malum, Skerry Palanga, Joe Mugbuga and Ken Brown to deny them the position of Presidents 13 coach? With Southern zone having an unsmeared record in the games played so far and having nine players in the Presidents 13 side, Steve Malum seems the better qualified person to be appointed coach.

However, again somebody from the wilderness has been selected to coach. What has Barry Wilson go that the other three zone coaches do not have? Steve at this point in time seems to have all the credentials for the coach position. Even the local side he coaches, Kone Tigers, heads the Port Moresby competition.

It is a stab in the back for Steve Malum and the other local coaches who have sweated to bring out the best in the players and then to see somebody appear from the blue to gobble up the rewards.

After all Barry Wilson has proven himself by sending Air Niugini further into the doldrums. Any excuse or reason for his appointment is just not good enough. Steve Malum is as good as any coach who has coached in this country.

The PNGRLF should give him a chance to prove his worth.

Fair Play supporter,
Port Moresby.

LAST Sunday's game between the two big cats turned out to be a no contest, much to the disappointment of the rugby league fans.

Kone Tigers must surely have a hoodoo over Paga Panthers. The Tigers raced to an early lead of 18-0 20 minutes into the game and never looked back.

Kone Tigers won through the tireless efforts of their forward pack which was led by Andy Taiya and young Jeoffry Hoada. Jeff was always in the thick of things, always getting his one handed pass away despite being mobbed by two or more defenders.

Paga went down simply because they did not move up quickly in defence and when going in for the tackle allowed the ball carrier to still get his pass away.

In the main game of the weekend, a new look Twisties Brothers held Nissan Tarangau to a 26 all draw. It was the likes of young Akuila Emil at five eighth who played a blinder, that kept the Brothers machinery going forward all the time. I can see that they'll be a hard nut to crack from now on. On Saturday, Hobart West must set a new PNG record by thrashing Easts 80-0. In all my experience with rugby league in Port Moresby from 1977-1987, I cannot recall such a high score being scored in any game.

For the coming weekend's games, on Saturday the two competition giants come face to face with the moment of the truth. Toyota Defence and Kone Tigers will clash for the right to become outright leaders after this weekend.

The last time the two teams met, Defence emerged the victors by only a small margin. I've been impressed by the Kone outfit especially their forwards who are young and mobile. With the exclusion of Joe Tep and possibly Iosefa Falaniko, Kone is set to even the score in this encounter.

Sunday's clash between Southern zone and Riverina should give rugby league fans their money's worth of entertainment. Southern zone has either beaten or drawn its matches with visiting rugby league teams from overseas. The onus is now on our men to uphold that proud record that we have had so far.

Give the home crowd advantage and being the only undefeated team so far in the zone trials, I cannot see any reason why we can't beat Riverina in their first match on PNG soil.

GIRL of the WEEK

PNG displayed top style in Qld touch football

THE Papua New Guinea teams cruised through in style in the seven aside North Queensland Touch Championships in Mackay over the Queen's birthday weekend. The women lost only two in as many games they played and the men went through the tournament undefeated.

It was sweet revenge for the men (K B Raiders) who had to wait 12 months to avenge the loss they suffered in the finals, at the hands of the Queenslanders.

In the mixed team finals, the game ended up in a 3-all draw. The women who participated in the tournament learnt a lot and it is up to them to spread the knowledge to their team mates in the local competition.

This weekend in the main game on Saturday, Kone Tigers take on Defence to determine the outright leader in the Port Moresby competition. Both stand on 17 points apiece heading the city competition.

The soldiers gunned down the Tigers 30-16 in their previous meeting but this time they will have to work

Schoolboys' effort to get to the Lae championship

The Kiunga High school Schoolboys' rugby team have raised nearly K400 by cleaning up Kiunga town.

The fund raising campaign is to help organise a team to participate in this year's national Schoolboys' carnival to be held in Lae next month.

Government authorities paid the Schoolboys' K320 for town garbage collection, while Burns Philp Kiunga and Talair Kiunga paid the students K30 and K25 respectively for cleaning up their premises.

The Kiunga High Schoolboys' league is very grateful for the government, and these two business firms for providing the opportunity to raise money.

The league is especially thankful for the kind and generous donations from Ningerum Transport Pty Ltd and Kuba Baiva Fishing Company of Lake Murray of K100 each.

League president Ian Kakarere said, "I wish to thank everyone for their support and assistance."

"Kiunga High school is one of the most isolated high schools in Papua New Guinea, and the opportunities to take part in activities with other schools are very few and costly."

"The business firms that have assisted so far are greatly contributing to the academic and social development of the students."

"The students are not only going to Lae to play rugby league, but also widen their social and educational horizons. Such national carnivals develop confidence and self-esteem in students." Mr Kakarere said.

The player of the series from the PNG camp was Tuave Rauv in the men's open and Emily Po'o and Karen Kula in the women's division, who displayed a brilliant brand of football.

The PNG contingent arrived back on last Friday all wearing medals they won at the championships.

Meanwhile in the local competition Medic lead the race on 70 points, followed by DCA on 60 points, Bullets and Elcom Sparks on 57 points apiece in division 1.

In division 2 Roosters and Rockets lead on 62 points apiece, followed by Kaugere on 57 points and Works on 56 points. The semi-final of the competition will start on June 28 with the final on July 12.

The election shock really hit Kiunga's male population last week when it learned there would be no rugby league games for at least three weeks.

The Kiunga rugby league president Linus Yambun said in a public notice that all rugby league matches were postponed until the election was over and votes counted.

Mr Yambun cited that many of the league officials and players were involved in the election.

Mr Yambun, who is also a police inspector and station commander is heavily involved with polling.

Mr Yambun is also one of Kiunga leagues senior referees, and another senior referee, Charles Aisa, is a presiding officer with one of the polling teams.

The league secretary Bowame Gawaga is the North Fly Open returning officer and heavily committed to the general election.

However, most club officials and players believe the competition should continue regardless of the election.

Simon Mulake, a spokesman for Walivestes rugby league club said that there were still plenty of players to field teams.

In regard to the lack of officials Mr Mulake said, "the league should have organised with the various club officials to run and contest the games during the polling period."

Mr John Lari of United club, is concerned that the Kiunga season will finish after centres.

"I am worried in case whoever wins the Kiunga grand final might miss out on the Cambridge Cup," he said.

A Brothers official, who did not want to be named, said his concern was that players would lose physical and match fitness.

The vice-president of Magani, Waituka Maina blasted the league officials for the lack of organisation.

"The players are upset, it is really bad."

The Kiunga league oval was more quiet than a cemetery last Sunday.

Kone Defence will be a tough match extra hard if they are to repeat the win. Tigers who are unpredictable at times seem to have hit top form this time and should come out on top.

The backline will be evenly matched with the likes Wilfred Mai, Veari Wari and the Haru brothers Gordon and Stanley for the Tigers and Arnold Kerewanty, Thoa Rauv, Robert Bulo and Joel Kure in the Defence camp.

However the Tigers should have an edge in the forwards where Andy Taiya and Kile Ario should again lead youngsters Jeffery Haoda and Alphonse Umba to tame the soldier's pack.

A tough encounter is expected, but the Tigers should just nip the soldiers to avenge their first round loss.

In the other games to be played this weekend, Hawks should register their second win at the expense of struggling Air Niugini, West will be in for a surprise from Tarangau, DCA to give Easts a wallop and the Panthers will fight out an even match against Brothers.

• Oscar Taule, the seemingly brittle Tarangau halfback busts the Brothers' defence. The match ended in a 26 all draw.

However five minutes later the Tigers roared when big Taiya powered into a horde of Paga opponents turned around and offloaded to Alphose Umba, who was in full flight, to score.

Mai potted the easy conversion spelling the beginning of the end for the Panthers. Taiya did it again when he made a burst upfield, drew his man and floated a pass to rampaging Ario who ran in untouched to score beside the uprights. Mai's conversion saw the Tigers take a 12-2 lead.

Tigers scored again 10 minutes before the break when Bona Ame appeared for the blue to pick up a fumbled ball by his team mates to score. Mai raised the flags again and Tigers surged ahead 18-2.

The Panthers went into the second half revitalised and within seconds from the kickoff, Bernard Waketsi cruised in to score at the corner.

However this triggered off a Tigers scoring spree with the forwards paving the way for the speedy backline to finish off the moves.

Emmanuel Kauna, Fae, Gordon and Stanley Haru each scored a try with Mai adding the extras. For the Panthers Wai scored a consolation try five minutes before the end of the game.

In the other games played on Sunday, a powerful Defence side mowed down Hawks 56-20 and Tarangau drew with Brothers 26-all.

Tarangau crush Spiders in Lae league

TARANGAU is flying high in Lae league after brushing aside competition leaders, East Spiders 15-8 in the main game on Sunday. The game started off with both sides swinging the ball out wide.

Spiders with Junior Kumul Gamiun Maho dictating play at half back were the better side when in possession and defended superbly against the heavier Tarangau forwards.

Tarangau in the first half just could not locate any opening in the Spiders web and promising raids were blunted by a brickwall Spider defence. They played like beginners in that stanza and only managed a mere field goal by halfback Anthony Nasu to trail 1-4 at the break.

The Spiders with fast flowing football kept the warders chasing them desperately, but a lot of try scoring opportunities went begging as they kept fumbling the ball, just before or on the tryline.

East Spiders points in that half came from a try wide out to blockbusting prop, Papus Miamil after the ball exchanged hands along the fast backline.

In the second stanza it was the other way around. Tarangau got their act together and after some brilliant play sent in Leo Parua to touch down at the corner, to take over the lead 5-4.

After the third tackle from the kickoff John Solomu side stepped his way through three Spiders for another try to surge ahead 9-4. The try boosted Tarangau's morale which saw them run riot and Elia Cooper went in for another converted try to put them further ahead 15-4 with 15 minutes remaining.

The East Taraka boys realising that they were beaten retaliated and attacked desperately in the dying stages. Their efforts paid off when Arua Ao completed a neat backline movement to score.

In the other games played on Sunday Brothers defeated Magani 20-21 and Tigers just scrapped home against a strong finishing Panthers side 24-20.

Weekend of upsets in Wau

LOWLY rated Appcats sprung an upset in Wau league when they put up an excellent performance to down the competition leaders, Panthers, 12-8. Appcats had to fight hard all the way for the win.

From the first whistle, both sides put in everything they had to better the other. But Appcats with hard barging runs from skipper Joe Tonar, Oriso Boas and Kiage Kapi played their hearts out to earn the win.

Panthers had the faster backline on the day and had they utilised their backs fully, they could have turned the game to their favour. Panthers "big boy" Mathias Winabel with assistance from William Kennedy and Hosea Palom tried hard all day but lacked support from their colleagues.

In the earlier "A" grade game, the team at the bottom of Wau league ladder, East pulled down second placed giants Country, 10-8.

East has reason to be proud, as its three grades managed to win all their games played last weekend.

escaped with 10-8 when Country fired in the last minute.

The game seesawed in the first 20 minutes until big forward Ken Nema landed the first try for East.

The conversion by East crowd pleaser Boas was unsuccessful and the score remained East 4, Country nil.

However Country replied and scored a try when skipper Tony Garap made a brilliant run, evading his opponents to touch down.

East's second try came from Boas but Country again capitalised on East's mistakes and set up a try for blockbusting fullback Kapi out wide.

Kapi's try equalised the scores 8 all but East grabbed the victory from a penalty, which was easily potted by Boas.

Best for East were Nema, Roger Toa, Boas, Wellington Pako and Wilson Kande, while for Country skipper Garap played well.

Student selection set for this week

University of Papua New Guinea rugby league (UPNGRL)

selection trials are expected to draw a large crowd even though the games will be played over two weekdays, Thursday and Friday, June 18 and 19. The games will be played at Lloyd Robson oval.

Players from six participating clubs — Medics, Norths, Souths, United, Blue Spiders and NGI will play their best as the selection to tour Brisbane later this year, will be made on these two days.

Last year's premier, Blue Spiders is a major threat to the other participating clubs.

Two other major threats in the trials are Medics and Souths, while the other three participating clubs have to work hard to win their respective games. UPNGRL president John Sevese told RLN that this was the first time such an event would take place. He said the selection of players would follow five major criteria approved by the UPNGRL governing body.

The players will be chosen on the following:

the player and the club must be affiliated to UPNGRL; the player must pay all fees set by UPNGRL body; selectors will look at players past and present performance; also there will be alternate selection done by a second party.

Mr Sevese said that the selected players would be considered according to the criteria outlined above.

Tigers clipped Air Niugini's wings

IN the main game of Madang rugby league played at Ron Alberts league ground, Tigers walloped Jant Air Niugini. Tigers were a fitter and better side and displayed control and skills in that game.

In the first half both teams had all their heavies firing and the game was exciting to watch as both teams concentrated on defence. In the first half, Jant won only one quarter of the scrums but never used that ball. Their speedy backline was starved by their forwards who ran all the balls in the first half.

Just before half time, Jant's speedy half Lesly Pat, after a scrum win in the Tigers' territory, jumped in to score. The conversion was made by John Kauba. At half time Jant lead by eight points with Tigers yet to score.

In the first half both teams concentrated on defence and tried to win scrums. Scrums were in favour of Tigers in the first half but they failed to use the ball. Jant showed tiredness towards the end of first half.

Tigers' coach former Northern zone John Jacobs was there to say a few words to his players. He told them to get out there and play rugby and not to box in the rugby field. His words paid off and at the kick off in the second half, the boys in orange did just that.

Their backline fired with a classic try from half to wing then back to the rucks. Their hard working centre Clement came in full flight to receive a timely pass from another, pushed aside a few opponents to score. Tibong made no mistake with his boots.

In the second half it was all Tigers'. Their ball work was superb and they made their opponents look like beginners. Tigers backline fired again this time putting their aggressive second rower James to score a corner try. Conversion by Arthur Tibong was unsuccessful.

Jant tried desperately to even the score, their heavies Bare Duin, Ben Ignas worked overtime to ruck the ball into Tigers' territory. But the efforts were in vain, because their opposites were prepared to throw them to the ground.

In the backline, Pat tried to set his backline but his efforts were also shattered. John Kambual, a player with a big heart, tackled all day for his team. A small man in size, but given the space this young man will go, except that injuries have always been a part of his game.

Tigers' forwards Chris, James and gang gave little chance to their opponents they tackled them hard, forcing them to lose the ball.

metres and shovelled the ball to team mate Andrew Farrar, who crossed for the try.

Queenslander Colin Scott missed a goal two minutes later after yet another offside penalty from Gomersall.

NSW were playing dry football in wet weather, in the opening of stages of the game before Queensland forwards started to slip into gear.

"We did not play well in the first 20 minutes, but again they probably did not let us," said Maroons' captain Wally Lewis.

Eight minutes before half time, Shearer scored for Queensland after another mistake, this time by NSW with the ball being snapped up by tiny half Alan Langer.

Scott missed his second goal attempt of first half, leaving the Blues with a slender

6-4 lead at the break. "Everyone in the dressing room at half time said "we've got this game", said Lewis.

However, it was the performance of Gomersall which caused much discussion after the match.

While the Mackay whistle blower enforced a variety of strange off side rulings, his five metres in general public was hardly seen.

"I did not see anything out there to prove he was doing us any favours," said Bennett.

"We've lost four games in a row through some hard decisions." If they want to use the referee as the excuse then they can," said Bennett.

The only major injury come out of the match was what appeared to be serious knee injury luckless Steve Folkes. Folkes was replaced by Canterbury team mate Paul Langmack after 26 minutes.
