

Panel of experts discuss smoking in the workplace 5/24

May 17, 1984

Issues relating to smoking in the workplace will be discussed by a panel of experts from noon to 1:30 p.m., Thursday, May 24, in the Garren Auditorium, Basic Science Building, at the University of California, San Diego.

Questions and answers on medical, legal and personal issues will be brought up in open discussion, following a presentation from each panel member.

Members of the panel are facilitator Steve Brady, UCSD Counseling and Psych Services; Jim Forde, director of Health Service, San Diego County; Kerry Donnell, UCSD labor relations analyst; Howard Mitchell, president of the California non-smokers rights group; and Bud Porter, lobbyist for the American tobacco industry.

For more information contact: Alixandra Williams, 452-3120

(May 17, 1984)