

List of the events taking place in conjunction with the inauguration of Richard C. Atkinson as chancellor

October 8, 1981

NOTE TO CALENDAR EDITORS

The following is a list of events for October 21-23 held in conjunction with the inauguration of Richard C. Atkinson as chancellor of the University of California, San Diego. Admission is free and the public is invited.

Oct. 21 9 a.m. Colloquium, "Crossing Boundaries: Humanity In Space," room 1105 Basic Science Building, School of Medicine.

11 a.m. Colloquium, "The Border That Joins: Health Problems and Health Care Among California's Mexican Immigrants and Their Children," room 1106 Humanities and Social Sciences Building, Muir College.

Noon Art Exhibition, "MONUMENTAL PROJECTS: Maquettes and Photographs," Mandeville Art Gallery (through November 25).

1 p.m. Colloquium, "The Deep-Sea Hydrothermal Vents: The Hottest Thing in Oceanography," Mandeville Center Auditorium.

4 p.m. Poetry Reading, Robert Duncan, one of America's most eminent poets, Mandeville Center Auditorium.

8 p.m. Music Faculty Recital and World Opera Premiere, "The Awakening of Sappho," Mandeville Center Recital Hall.

Oct. 22 10:30 a.m. Inaugural Ceremony, Principal address by Dr. William McGill, Mandeville Center Auditorium. Tickets must be obtained in advance at the UCSD University Events Box Office, 452-4559.

8 p.m. Repeat Performance of Music Faculty Recital and Opera, "The Awakening of Sappho," Mandeville Center Auditorium.

Oct. 23 10 a.m. Colloquium, "How the University Can Contribute to the Changing Status of Women," room 2250 Applied Physics and Mathematics Building, Muir College.

8 p.m. Jazz Concert, UCSD and SDSU Jazz Ensembles, Mandeville Center Auditorium.

For more information contact: Paul W. West, 452-3120

(October 8, 1981)