

CALENDAR ANNOUNCEMENT

May 3, 2006

April 4, 2006

Harvard Kennedy School of Government Professor George Borjas, often called America's "leading immigration economist," will address the University of California, San Diego Economics Roundtable, May 3, beginning at 7:30 a. m. at the Faculty Club on the UCSD campus. His remarks are titled, "Making It Worse: How the U.S. Government Has Tackled the Immigration Problem-Wrongly." The public is invited and the $50 fee includes breakfast, parking and the lecture. For more information contact Edie Munk (858)-822-0510 or emunk@ucsd.edu

Media contact: Barry Jagoda (858) 534-8567.