

Tyler elected Fellow of Optical Society of America

February 21, 1961

John E. Tyler, Research Physicist at the Visibility Laboratory of the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography, was recently elected a Fellow of the Optical Society of America for distinguished service in the advancement of optics.