COMMENTARY

by JOSEPH KAU

● Joe Mugabuga

● BARRY WILSON: he was selected on merits and is reappointed

PNGRFL PUT MUGABUGA IN LIMBO

Joe Mugabuga's position as assistant coach of national team last year will not take him on the Europe tour

THERE is no position for an assistant coach in the Kumul tour of France and England later this year. This is the final word from the PNGRFL executive.

It also means that the Kumul assistant coach Joe Mugabuga will not be in the touring party.

Acting secretary for the PNGRFL Martin Adamson told RLN that the position of the national coach and the national trainer for the Kumul tour was reconfirmed after their appointments in the agm of the PNGRFL last year.

However the position of the team doctor and the team manager are yet to be filled and the position of assistant abolished.

Mr Adamson told RLN that last year the position was created to groom potential national Kumul coaches and Mugabuga was appointed.

However when confronted with the fact that this was one opportunity where a national assistant Kumul coach could gain further experience Mr Adamson refused to comment further. It is interesting to note here that in the junior Kumul tour of New Zealand last year there was an assistant coach, Mugabuga.

Now the seniors are on an international tour and there is no assistant coach. Mugabuga's mentor on the Kiwi tour Keith Collins could not be contacted for comment.

PNGRFL Tours and Promotions director Kevin Murphy told RLN that all officials appointed on the Kumul tour was made on merits alone and at the moment Barry Wilson is the best qualified coach available.

Mr Murphy said that the appointment of Mugabuga last year as the assistant Kumul coach did not mean that he would take over immediately as the Kumul coach but if he (Mugabuga) had the necessary curriculum vitae to back him up then he could be considered.

Mugabuga could not be contacted for comment but it is believed that he has no club or even a team to coach. Similarly the Kumul coach Wilson has no club to coach.

Police clubs disband to concentrate on election

by JOSEPH KAU

THE Kiunga Royals football league club, a pre-dominantly policeman orientated club has disbanded following alleged instructions from the police headquarters to disband all police dominated sporting clubs so as to concentrate on their duties in the coming national election.

The police commissioner Mr David Tasion could not be contacted for comment but if the allegations are verified then it could mean that all police dominated clubs in the country will have to disband.

The ruling at the moment stands that a policeman is allowed to play any sport as long as duty comes first and leisure and sports later.

Confirmation from the provinces could not be obtained but one police station commander in the National capital did confirm that a verbal instruction issued to the same effect at the recent provincial police commanders conference held in Rabaul. But a written confirmation is yet to be seen.

Policemen are involved in almost all the team sports played in the country and their reaction to this alleged instruction is yet to be gauged.

POM replays 1986 final

PORT Moresby league followers will be treated to a feast of football as the review of last season's grandfinal is re-enacted when Hobar West take on Bowman's DCA on Sunday.

Starstudded Hobar West will be out to regain lost face and DCA looks at this stage to be easy meat. The record so far this season is Hobar West: two convincing wins, one narrow loss, Bowmans DCA: one narrow win and two losses.

It will be a grudge match and West will be out to wipe the slate clean of the black spot DCA made when they trounced West last season. Stalwarts Henry Miro, Gideon Kouoru and Tati Ivava will man the frontline action with strong runs and punishing tackles.

Ivava will be particularly dangerous as he is a player who is capable of standing up in tackles to offload. If he manages to get the support from Achilles Peni and newcomers Moiu Pisi and Clement Mou DCA will be in for a torrid affair.

Flankers Alu Poka and Don Tore will be expected to use their pace again to West's advantage and should be able to give opposites Mike Arere and Maba Morea a few tests in speed.

DCA on the other hand will out to prove critics wrong and according to coach Tara Gau, DCA will be out in full strength this weekend. "We have been training with new players in the pre-season and the commitment of some of our regular players in the village competition is the main cause of our poor performance up to date."

Gau told RLN that by testing all the potential players he was able to make his judgements to correct the errors that the players have been making to bring about a premiership winning combination.

"I will again be taking a hardline stance this season and anybody who does not turn up for training and perform up to expectation will be benched," he continued.

DCA who had its first proper training session on Monday should put up a side

by JOSEPH KAU

to match West neck to neck on Sunday. Youngsters Koivi Pirika, Gure Hera, Morea, Moi Ganiga and Dairi Konae all tried campaigners should be able to take a bite or two at the 'pukpuks' rawhide.

In another grudge match, Defence will be out to show Paga that the signing of Roy Loitive, Londari Minape and perhaps Mattias Kitimon will mean nothing to Defence's standing this season.

Iosefa Falaniko and Joe Tep up front will be relied on to detonate the Defence fireworks and once started, hard to stop. Three-quarters Lucas Agi and Joel Kure are slippery and should be able to get the ball rolling to flash in Arnold Kerewany and Oscar Oksap to score in the flanks.

Paga on the other hand seems to have its forwards settled and will be giving the soldiers a taste of their own medicine with ex-Defence players Loitive and Minape, at the helm.

Robert Jakis, Francis Hennessy, Paul Labu and Bernard Waketsi will be able to put up to any task Defence may deploy and with Timo Rei calling the shots at halfback Paga should match the soldiers.

The other top billed game at the weekend will be the encounter between Air Niugini and Brothers. Both teams are undefeated in the pre-season and out to keep their record intact.

Air Niugini with ace Tony Kila manning the pivot position will be all out to put a stop to the Brethren's late winning spree. Forwards Lawrence Gandi, Palme Mond, John Keai and John Melvin should have enough power to jet through the Brothers line.

Bob Tolick will put in his gusty performance running from his fullback position and import Mala Sor who scored two runaway tries against Tigers last weekend should repeat the dosage on Brothers this weekend.

Brothers on the other hand are a unknown quantity but with Simon Girty polishing off the rough edges. Brothers should give the airliners a good run for their money.

In the other games Hawks should edge out Tarangau and Easts and Kone to fight out an even tussle.

● Gideon Kouoru gets a free joy ride — courtesy of Defence's muscle men and delivers the ball to team mate Luke Kare so that he can really enjoy his luck. Defence won the game 28-26.

The lost letter is found safe

by BENNY BOGG

THE letter, which if lost would put UPNG rugby league in an off guard position when the French combined university team tours PNG, is found to be safe in the hands of UPNG Waigani chaplain Fr Robert Lak.

However, the letter is written in French and Fr Lak is looking for a couple of Vanuatu students on the campus to translate it into English.

Last week, UPNG sports co-ordinator Philip Num revealed from his Waigani campus that PNG universities had taken the initial step in inviting three national university teams to come to PNG sometime this year.

Num said Australia, New Zealand and France have all replied to his invitation either verbally or in written form.

Australia and New Zealand indicated that they would send a combined team of Australian universities and a combined team of New Zealand universities up to PNG probably in August.

He is expecting the Frenchmen to come to PNG sometime in March. But he will wait for the translated letter to confirm that.

Fr Lak said that he was not hiding the letter. "I had a difficult time in finding people who could translate the letter. It's not lost. I think I will ask the Vanuatu boys on campus to translate it as soon as I find them."

GIRL of the WEEK

The loyal Royal

MELVA Barlee 20 comes from Hamorage village, Erave, Southern Highlands Province.

Normally one would come to the conclusion that Melva would support Korobosea in the National Capital Rugby Football League. But Melva is a Royals Bomana supporter over and over.

"Win, lose or draw I support Bomana."

Melva says her hobbies are watching rugby and cracking jokes.

Gold Coast visit on for Schoolboys

AN Australian rugby league team from Gold Coast will visit Papua New Guinea later this year to test the strength of the code in the high schools.

John Morrison the president of PNG Schoolboys rugby football league said from Goroka last Monday that during the last week of September an open weight or under 70kg schoolboys team from Gold Coast will come for a two week visit to PNG.

The open weight division from Queensland will comprise players from high schools along the Gold Coast and the team will play about five games here. Morrison said that the programme is a tentative one at this stage. "It will be confirmed with Geoff Richardson of the Gold Coast Schoolboys rugby football league later."

Morrison said that Richardson had prepared for this event to give schoolboys rugby league some form of real competition.

The Gold Coast team will have 20 players and three officials.

Morrison said also that PNG was preparing to send a schoolboys team down to Australia in August this year.

However, Morrison said to RLN, "But I don't think we can afford to do that now. We have a financial situation here now where all money from the code must be channelled to PNGRFL for our Kumuls to tour Europe."

But the Schoolboys president hopes to bring down to Australia a team of under 60kg or 55kg next year to give a return match to the Queenslanders.

"We will work this year to collect money that will allow us to go to Australia next year."

Richardson who is expected to be on the PNG excursion in September this year was the former PNG schoolboys president up until September 1985 when he resigned and went down to Queensland.

FROM PUKPUK TO CROCODILE

The journey of West's DON TORE

"SELF-commitment, discipline and application of what you learn will make you a brilliant footballer".

These are the principles of Hobar West flashy winger Don Tore and it is also his advice for other up and coming youngsters.

Tore a match winner in his own right, proved his words in the field with his performances for West and Southern zone last year.

During his football career with union, Tore represented PNG in the Pukpuks Hong Kong seven a side in 1984 and 1985.

He was named in the non-travelling reserve list for the Pukpuks Hong Kong tournament last year but he surprised the selectors when he switched codes to sign up with the West rugby league club.

With encouragement from West players like Henry Miro and Tati Ivara, "I decided to take the challenge of trying the other code."

Being a Pukpuk did not even concern Tore when he joined the crocodiles as he was well prepared to take the challenge of becoming a Kumul one day.

In his first three appearances for West, Tore still had the union mentality where you have to let the ball off your hands when held. This led to too many dropped ball errors caused by him.

The international liaison officer

"I learn from my errors like any other"

with PTC from Iurupi village in Daru brushed off all criticisms by putting on a sparkling performance that earned him the reputation of a try hungry winger.

"I learn from my own errors like every other footballer and that enables me to enjoy the game with my wantoks," Tore recalls.

In his first year of appearance at the league fields did not take time to attract the attentions of the Southern zone selectors.

He was first named in the Southern zone side that thumped the New Zealand Kiwis 20-16 in a lead up match at the Lloyd Robson Oval last year.

Tore was in fact the man who

● Done Tore takes off for the centre of the uprights after out running DCA's Nohokau Lohia.

caused the Kiwis downfall for the first time ever to a PNG team.

"The score was tied at 16 all within the 75 minute mark of the game when Tore scooped a fumbled ball on the Kiwi 25 metre line and raced off from a couple of would be tacklers to score a brilliant try for his side.

This event is unforgettable for Tore apart from the Boroko Hotel best and fairest player award he receive after West's two consecutive clashes with Twisties Brothers last year.

And the 1987 season is definitely another entertaining year for Tore in his rugby league career. His form is also a threat to the Kumul wingers Mafu Kerekere and Joe Katsir.

Meanwhile Tore is confident that West will make another grandfinal appearance this year.

Being a winger, Tore said there were no problems with the crocodile backline at this stage and they just required a little bit of moulding in the forward pack.

● When the flashy winger has the ball in his possession and his sights set on the tryline there is no slowing down.

Small 'border town league' goes it alone

by ARI HABA in Vanimo

THE non-affiliation of the Vanimo rugby league to the PNG rugby football league will not prevent the staging of it's pre-season tournament and its season proper competitions this year. Vanimo will go it alone this year — starting next Sunday.

The five clubs of the Vanimo league are all set to kick off the pre-season matches next Sunday, March 15. These clubs, namely, Brothers Sea Eagles, Hawks, Tarakum and Defence will go into straight knockouts which shall end the following Sunday, March 22. They will then go ahead with the first matches of the season proper competitions on the last Sunday of this month (March 29) without taking a break after their pre-season games.

This small "border town league" failed to affiliate with the main body, because officials and coaches of the various clubs did not attend a few meetings late last year.

Those meetings were called to nominate a representative to attend the annual meeting of the PNG rugby football league in Lae last year. Since no one appeared for them at this meeting, there was no way they could pay their affiliation fees and obtain reports of the certain rulings and changes made at the gathering.

While a few players and officials saw their non-membership to the main body as a big setback for their league, a few diehard executives found this would not dampen the interest of the majority of players. They called an impromptu annual meeting and appointed an interim executive committee two weeks ago.

This committee gathered a few times after that meeting and drew up their schedules for the pre-season knockout tournament and the season proper as well.

The former vice-president Eko Mason was promoted to president in the absence of his predecessor Hans Nero.

The other executives are secretary Jack Mandari, treasurer Robin Uri and referee's representative John Ilau.

The new boss said last week that a second meeting to confirm their appointments and select a few committee members would be held on Monday, March 16.

Mason revealed that his outcast league would pay K300 to the main body later this month to make them an associate member this year.

But he promised to seek the PNGRFL's ruling on this matter before announcing the move at the March 16 meeting. Whatever the ruling may be, it shall not affect the pre-season schedule which will have been started on March 15 and the season proper which was planned to proceed anyway with or without full membership to the main body.

Mason and his interim group of executives have called on all clubs to pay their K150 club affiliation and the K15 per player registration fees before the start of the pre-season. They expect all clubs to pay up before the deadline, because there had been numerous gatherings by clubs to collect monies from the beginning of the year to the date of the impromptu meeting.

The interest in the code has been obvious, judging by the great number of recruits into each club and the vigour shown at training sessions every afternoon in various open spaces of the small town.

The match schedules for the pre-season tournament have been circulated to all clubs and pinned upon a few noticeboards within the town area last week.

Mason and his executives were not available this week to reveal the information for this issue. However, it is hoped that Mason will keep his "outcast league" in line with the growing fever of the rugby league season and continue to reveal their progress in future issues of BLN.

Furiki belts Hairo Wallaby 12-4 at Bavaroko

by RAYMOND AUGUST

IN one of the outstanding highlights of the David Unagi rugby league competition, Furiki in a classy performance belted Hairo Wallaby 12-4 at the Bavaroko league ground last Sunday.

At the kick off, both teams swung into battle with neither side scoring. Excellent attacking and defensive football was observed from both sides.

Not until after 10 minutes of play when Furiki in an assault movement drive set up Henry Yosa for a well deserved try. The conversion attempted by Namugo Hako was unsuccessful and Furiki lead 4-0.

The ball was than kicked off again by Hairo Wallaby and after 10 minutes of play 'shorty' Tailan Nothi in a magnificent back up formation for Furiki received a beautiful pass and raced over for a try under the uprights.

Furiki further their lead 8-0 until the halftime.

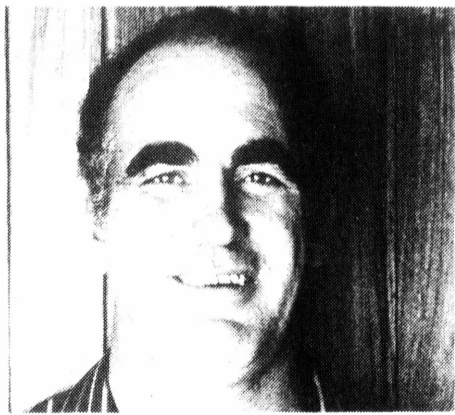

In the second half, Hairo Wallaby was able to detect some of its errors and with about five minutes of play Rex Kenny barged his way through a couple of defenders to score. Conversion attempt failed and Hairo Wallaby trailed Furiki 4-8.

However, with about five minutes remaining before fulltime, Furiki went on the rampage again and sent over Robert Saio for the last try of the match. Conversion by Tailan missed and Furiki further the score with 12-4.

The fulltime score was Furiki 12 and Hairo Wallaby 4.

Best for Furiki were Yosa, Nothi while Kenny and Yaila A stood out for Hairo Wallaby.

Kumul tour collection has kicked off

● Kevin Murphy

FUND raising for the Kumuls tour to France and England kicked off this year with a function at the Pink Pussy Cat on Sunday night March 1. PNGRFL tours and promotions director Mr Kevin Murphy told RLN that this was the first of many other fund raising activities planned for this year.

Mr Murphy said the target for this year's tour was K200,000 and said that the figure was within reaching distance. Some money has been carried over from last year's Kumul commitments but the figures could not be disclosed.

He said he disclosed, Pepsi Cola had already made a commitment of K25,000 to the tour and a cigarette company would be making a donation later this year.

Individual players would be levied later after quotes have been received on the costs of uniforms and other things the players would be needing. Mr Murphy said as usual supporters' clubs and leagues would be paying the levy for the players.

The amount to be levied on the players will be decided in the next PNGRFL executive meeting to be held on March 14, 1987 in Port Moresby.

KIMBE ISSUES A WARNING:

"Keep Madang, Rabaul Out of National Body"

by HENRY MORABANG

THE vice president of Kimbe rugby league Mathew Bapaya has given a warning to PNGRFL not to allow Madang and Rabaul to become members of the national body.

The fate of these two leagues is yet to be decided in PNGRFL sitting in Lae this month.

He would described that as a "weak administration" on the part of PNGRFL.

Mr Bapaya said both leagues failed to affiliate at the first place and must be automatically suspended from the national body.

Precedent

If both leagues are allowed than the action sets a precedent for other slow leagues in the future.

He also called on PNGRFL not to interfere with the zone trials.

Mr Bapaya was referring to Rabaul league president Graham Shuttleworth's statement on media last Friday that the zone trial would be hosted in Rabaul.

"It was ruled that 1987 Island zone trials be staged at Kimbe and not in Rabaul. Rabaul league had its share last year," Bapaya said to RLN.

Kimbe's league vice president said, last year's meeting in Lae, PNGRFL passed a resolution that the 1987 zone championship is to be held in Kimbe.

Meanwhile the preparation for the championship is underway. It would be a set back to allow the games held in Rabaul.

Bapaya said the league would stick to the resolution.

To host a zone championship, the host centre must prepare 12 months in advance.

Mr Bapaya told RLN this week that Kimbe league would ask all the clubs in Kimbe to boycott the games if the zone trials were to be held in Rabaul.

He commented, "It is clear that Rabaul is a bad area because it could not meet its dead line for affiliation fees."

"I'll put more pressure to ensure that the trials should be played at Kimbe and not Rabaul."

Meanwhile the Kimbe league president Gerry Luru also supports Bapaya saying that "I can't see any reason why PNGRFL changed the venue without informing Kimbe."

Mr Luru called on the PNGRFL executives to answer why they had failed to reply to a letter that the Kimbe executives wrote about the change of venue.

Decision

The Kimbe president described that as an "unfair" decision by PNGRFL officials.

The PNGRFL secretary Martin Adamson denied this report about zone trials to be played at Kimbe.

In a reply statement to the Kimbe executives, Mr Adamson said there was no resolution passed and also there were no recorded minutes that stated Kimbe would host the zone trials this year.

"As far as I can say is, there is no news about Kimbe — but the zone trials are to be held in Rabaul."

Proper

Meanwhile Kimbe rugby league commences its season proper this weekend.

The six participating clubs will certainly struggle hard for the final berth to win the Walala cup for premiership.

Those six clubs will also field three grades each for the 1987 season. The grades are A premier, B grade and the junior league.

Different

Mr Bapaya said Kimbe junior league would be different from the schoolboys rugby league.

March 7 has been the set date for all club affiliation fees of K150 and K13 registration fee to be handed over to the league executives before players take the field. This also means that all medical certificates should accompany the registration of players.

So far all clubs have paid their affiliation fees while some players have yet to give their registration fees.

Club presidents turn up for their first meeting

PRESIDENTS of all clubs in the Kimbe rugby league association held their first meeting of the 1987 season on Wednesday night (March 4).

The association's president Gerry Luru said during a conversation over the telephone with RLN that it was the first time all club presidents met since he took office this year.

In the meeting yesterday, the presidents discussed a few major agenda items especially, registration and affiliation fees and medical certificates.

In a collective statement, the presidents agreed that players should produce their medical certificates before they could take to the field on March 7.

It was a direction by the rugby league constitution that all players must be equipped with basic aids.

The other major issues discussed was that the president and his secretary would approach all business companies in Kimbe for financial assistance for upgrading the league oval.

President Luru said it would cost Kimbe league about K50,000 to renovate the first stage of development of Kimbe oval.

He told the meeting that the first stage included upgrading of the ticketing office, planting grass (labour cost), fencing, toilet-/shower room plus dressing room.

He also mentioned something about the new provincial rugby league office in Kimbe. At the moment, executives are using their own private house and business offices as their office.

Mr Luru told the presidents that through his own initiatives he had donated K3,000 to build the new office.

He said the league still owed him K2,500 but he would not demand the payment until the league was ready to repay the debt.

But first, Mr Luru vowed to see Kimbe rugby league find enough money to take care of its own affairs.

WAU PANTHERS WON THE BATTLE OF "CLAWS"

by HENRY MORABANG

PANTHERS' free flowing style caused a major football defeat for Tigers 36-18 in the main game of Wau/Bulolo league action last weekend.

The game kicked off in a tight defensive style of football for 20 minutes until Henry Richard converted a penalty goal. It was the first two points scored through hard work from the backline.

Panther retaliated immediately with a try from Maison Siri.

The cats' power horse Mathias Winibel and Peter Kiau invaded Tigers' territory continuously a creating gaps for 'skin tait' Taitus Peter, Joel Apolos and John Kerete to pile up points.

Tigers' played their worst game by not moving up to tackle and not providing support play.

Tigers with regulars Kalabe Yabai, Koi Simina, Soware Lape and Gessy Akiro did not have any stamina to contain Panthers hard runners.

It was reported that one incident that cast a doubt on the referee performance was when Tigers skipper was told to shut up when he brought a complaint to the referee.

Tigers should not point fingers at the referee for the loss. They should know that they played like beginners.

Best for the day were Winibel, Peter and Apolos for Panthers while Kerete, Richard and Jerry Song struggled for Tigers.

On Saturday, BM Easts faced another great challenge and went down 32-16 to Appcats.

What's happening in Kiunga?

Stories by IAN KAKARERE, RLN's correspondent in Kiunga

THE 1987 Kiunga rugby league season will be full of entertainment.

Kiunga Brothers coach Martin Paining said that his club would provide entertaining football this season.

"This year is the first time for spectators in Kiunga to pay a gate fee," Paining said.

"The spectators deserve and expect entertaining and interesting football.

"Brothers aim is to provide entertaining football," he said.

Brothers which formed this year in lieu of Royals has many entertaining players in its line up.

Brothers have recruited former Goroka Cambridge Country back Cornell Diapo in its backline.

"Daipo is fearless in defence. He tackles low and hard," said Paining.

"Daipo is a complete football with a wide range of skills."

Daipo supplements the starstudded Brothers backline of Michael Pagru, Mark Milowa and Tom Penny.

Paining also said that Brothers have a tough forward line up.

"Colonel Kubia and former K&T Country iron man David Memete add weight to the Brothers pack.

"Brothers also have two top rate hookers in Wesley Monesi and Jack Egnas," Paining said.

The Brothers club line up would not be finalised until Wednesday this week.

Said Paining, "We are building up and developing our skills.

"The situation in our camp is still like a raw taro cooking on the fire."

Man with a mission

Kiunga rugby league president Linus Yambun is a man with a mission. His aim: to improve the image of Kiunga rugby league.

"Since I arrived in Kiunga in 1984, I have noticed many mistakes," Mr Yambun said.

"Many supporters and players have been involved in incidents in which the Kiunga league has never taken any action on."

Inspector Yambun who is Kiunga police station commander wants tougher penalties for club supporters and players who cause incidents on the field.

"I want the standards of Kiunga rugby league to improve.

"How can the league in this town improve if there are disruptive incidents?"

"There have been no precedents set in the past. This year the precedent will set by the imposition of tough penalties on clubs and players who misbehave," Mr Yambun said.

People learn from precedents he declared.

They would know in the future that they could not cause trouble.

Close shave for Kaugere Tigers

by JOSEPH KAU

Determination more than anything else gave Tigers the strength to halt a late comeback bid by Pie Wings to take out the Kaugere Rabia touch football association premiership 2-1.

And in doing so the Tigers managed to retain the Jack John Shield.

Tigers took the field looking the champion team they are and 10 minutes into the game scored the first try when Marepo Michael dummied and shot a reverse pass to skipper Chillian Karara who zipped in to score.

However this proceeded no further as Wings tightened up and rallied to equalise with Robert Muri, Aua Kani and Mason Henry leading the way. But an equally determined defence line of Gill Robinson and company kept the Wings moves in check.

In the second half Tigers went one up when somehow Willie Muri saw Agap slipped through it and raced away to score with Henry and Igo Hekoi at his tail.

The try gave Tigers a breather but the relief was shortlived when Wings finally scored through Kaipu Ove who scooped up a fumbled ball by Willie Muri and flew into score.

Then three minutes into the game ended Wings had a chance to equalise when they managed to draw Tigers to one side of the field leaving winger Ove unmarked on the other side. However the pass from Henry failed to reach Ove and the jubilant Tigers walked off victors.

Tigers were well served by skipper Karara, Robinson and lanky Willie Muri whilst Robert Muri, Kani and Henry stood out for the Wings.

HOTTEST PROPERTY

Jakis is not made to sit on the reserve bench

by HENRY MORABANG

ROBERT Jakis, the young slim giant who turned his back on rugby union because of his love for rugby league, is now arguably the hottest property in the game.

He gave up union during his community school days to take up rugby because he was influenced by his buddies namely his current team mate Paul Labu and Wests and Kumul hooker Roy Heni.

Jakis' career in rugby league went back to his earlier days when he was a notable star forward during high school years in Wewak.

He was introduced to bigger and more aggressive football when he played for SP Country in Wewak after his high school stardom.

FAVOURITE

It was with Paul Labu, Roy Heni and Bob Tolick that Jakis developed his talents for rugby league during the late 70s. The favourite four were the products of the now associate league to the main body — Wewak League.

Jakis was success story of 1981 when he went in as an unfamiliar figure from the Wewak squad and sported a Northern zone jersey for the ticket into the big game in the country zone trials.

Four consecutive times Northern zone representative since 1981, Jakis can boast of being one of the very few best PNG rugby league players that the Northern zone has promoted.

In 1984, he broke through the doldrums to don the number 13 red and gold jersey against the British Lions in Mt Hagen.

When he moved to Port Moresby, it was obvious that Jakis was not made to sit on the reserve bench, be it during club competition, inter-zone trials or international games.

SHADOW

In 1985 he was selected to shadow current Air Niugini's wild runner Bob Tolick for Southern zone.

He recalled, "The zone trials were held in Popondetta. Some of my mates came to my house and woke me in the middle of the night to tell me that Southern zone lost very badly to Island zone."

Jakis described 1986 as the 'hottest year' in his career in rugby league.

He said, "When I broke my arm in the Panasonic elimination series in Brisbane, my thoughts of being a Kumul seemed very distant and faded.

"But I still believe that I can do a little bit more to help build the code in PNG and that is the reason I still play.

"At times you feel high but when disaster strikes you feel as if you are below the point zero.

"The year 1986 rugby league year couldn't have been worse for me. I almost hung up my boots when I received a call from the then PNGRFL secretary Dave Ross saying that I was dropped from the Kumul squad which was preparing to take on the New Zealand Kiwis in Goroka that year."

Jakis said, "I couldn't believe it. I was speechless. I was hit hard by Dave's bitter words and couldn't swallow my saliva."

Jakis was speaking of the period when he was involved in the Bankers rugby league competition. He lost his Kumul jersey then.

Jakis is very confident of touring Europe in October this year.

"I'll be there. Just give me two or three more games because I can feel that I am back in my "OLD JAKIS COAT".

"There was a little bit too much controversy surrounding me last year and I could not make it to play against the Australian Kangaroos. But 1987 is my year.

"Even though I may have registered my name in the rugby almanac as the most controversial Kumul or the 'Kumul Rebel' by doing the things I did, I aim to show Kumul selectors that I am not that bad and that I can play rugby league."

The soft spoken Paga explosive forward said, "I'll make sure 'JK' is back in the Kumul line up."

One senior Paga official branded Jakis as PNG's best forward at the moment. There are hardly any other Jakis around at this point in time.

He continued, "Jakis is an asset to the club. He is a talented player with great ability to help bring Paga to victory. And he will do likewise for the Kumuls this year when on tour."

Jakis is now with Paga. Earlier one club offered the devastating prop a fixed position in its first grade, but Jakis declined the offer. He would not say which club.

Mendi told to pay fees or forget it

by BEN WAUNS

"PAY up or forget about playing rugby league this year" was the shouted warning issued to six clubs of the Mendi rugby league this Tuesday, March 3.

The warning was given by the Mendi league secretary Moses Tolingling following the third postponement of the pre-season kickoff last weekend. He said members of the new executive committee that took office early last month are now fed up with five of the six clubs who have defied calls and warnings to pay up their affiliation and player registration fees. This attitude by clubs has forced the league to defer the pre-season kickoff three times now.

Tolingling said the pre-season competition which was to have started on the February 14 drew little response from the clubs and their officials. There was a meeting called by the executives two days before the kickoff to finalise the draws for the pre-season planned to go over a three week period to the first week of this month. But club representatives defied the call for that first meeting and continued to delay payments of fees and defer the kickoff.

That first meeting agreed to start the season proper competition on the last weekend of this month (March 28-29), that is, two weeks after the pre-season finals. It appears now that the league has been forced to re-schedule the matches every now and then and wait until the third month, while other leagues have gone ahead well. And the league have set an ultimatum for all clubs to complete their dues by March 13. No more discussions will be entertained after this date, and the league will only inform everyone that there will be no rugby league competition in Mendi this year.

The Mendi league executive has retained the services of president Joe Keviam, secretary Moses Tolingling, and the referee's representative Gerry Powi. The new faces in the committee are vice-president Michael Yaparua, registration officer Paul Landu and treasurer Kapua Tuweyo. They have decided to maintain the club affiliation K100 per club this year, but increase the player registration fee from K15 to K20.

The league also agreed to limit the competition to only six clubs again. And new club, Eildon Bulldogs, not warning to be outdone by the established clubs paid their dues to the league on February 13. They were given preference over last year's Woodenspooners, East Panthers, who have by now broken up to allow their players to join other clubs.

That limitation has made the league refuse the nomination of another new club, Mount Giluwe Tigers. The reason to limit the number of clubs stemmed from the unavailability of other playing fields beside the only one near the airstrip. Therefore, the six clubs having both A grade and A reserve teams allowed to play this year are Tarangau, Hawks, Brothers, Magani, Royals and Eildon Bulldogs.

Tolingling said the league was pleased with the interest shown by the Bulldogs and the Tigers to affiliate. But there were enough teams now to fill the match schedules on Saturday on the one field available. And the league felt that the schedules would be really tight, especially with the proposal to start a junior league competition under the six clubs still being worked out.

While Eildon Bulldogs are eager to growl their way into the season, the Tigers have been forced to scatter paws and join the other pack in the league. The Bulldogs have met all criteria set by the league to affiliate and are awaiting to give their rivals what it takes to form an obedient and ever ready club. If their rivals are beaten by the ominous deadline set by the league, it will mean the Bulldogs are to lie low for the coming months until the next season. Tolingling said the league executives failed to see the reason for the "defying act" by the five clubs after the league had paid their membership fees to the PNG rugby football league late last year.

The league has been made proud by the likes of Kore Seeto (Hawks), Matthias Kobmra (ex-Panthers), Paja Kebaija (Brothers) and Ati Lomutopa (ex-Panthers) who may earn the right to a Kumul jersey this year. These players and younger ones aiming for the limelight will surely have their hopes dashed if the league took the March 13 ultimatum to cancel the competition.

Ati Lomutopa left Mendi last year and had been playing with a successful club in Goroka. While he may have the chance to don a Kumul jersey this season, as he did in the PNG line up against the Kiwis and Kangaroos last year, his wantoks back home will be having a rough time settling their delay problems. What a way to start a season which promises to come up with big things...especially for the Mendi players, their executives and the crowds!

PORT Moresby Women's touch association entered its second year of the touch season last weekend.

The organiser of the touch association John Balavu told RLN this week that there were 22 teams participating in the competition.

He said now the teams were graded in two divisions.

In division one, they have 10 teams: DCA, Stilas, Credit Corporation Bullets, Transport, Bulldogs, Vikings, Medics, Customs, Elcom, Logo Energy, while in division two they have Mirikuro, Harbours, Nissan Rebel, Haus Bilas, Kaugere, Finance, Roosters, PTC, Rockets, DHL Works and DPM Falcon.

Mr Balavu said it was the beginning of the season proper and he had yet to point out which team was the toughest in the competition.

Four strong teams which he believed could entertain people with open style football were: in division one DCA, Medics, and two last year's grandfinalists Credit Corporation Bullets and Bulldogs.

In division two he named Mirikuro and Harbours, PTC and Roosters.

Mr Balavu said when those teams meet each other it would certainly give spectators their money's worth of entertainment.

He said a classical example was the game last weekend between PTC and Roosters.

PTC was actually "the team to beat" but when it met Roosters, it had to struggle.

PTC was lucky in the last minute when it scored its try through a gap created by Roosters.

They drew Roosters 1 all.

He sounded a warning to all clubs to submit their registration and affiliation fees quickly now or he would start to hard out sanctions.

He also reminded all clubs officials that the games would now be played at University Oval and not anymore at the Sir Hubert Murray Stadium.

In other touch football matters, the men's touch football and seven aside city competition will commence soon.

Again the organiser was John Balavu. He called on interested parties to contact him on 25 2344.
