UCSD COMMENCEMENT CEREMONIES, JUNE 16

Commencement ceremonies honoring the graduates of the four colleges and the graduate studies program at the University of California, San Diego will be held on the campus Sunday, June 16.

Approximately 2,400 students are eligible to take part in the five ceremonies, including some 600 from Muir College, 535 from Warren College, 380 from Revelle College and 400 from Third College.

Of this year's 350 degree recipients in the graduate program, about 90 will attend the ceremony. Most of the others have left campus for postgraduate studies or employment.

The graduation ceremony for the UCSD School of Medicine, at which some 123 students will receive M.D. degrees, is scheduled for 11 a.m. Sunday, June 9, on the lawn adjacent to the Biomedical Library. Dr. Lloyd H. Smith, Jr., retiring chairman of the UC San Francisco Department of Medicine, will give the commencement address, entitled, "Transitions in Medicine."

The graduation ceremonies of the four UCSD undergraduate colleges have traditionally taken place at different times throughout the day allowing students from one college to attend the ceremonies involving friends and colleagues at other colleges. Dr. Richard C. Atkinson, UCSD chancellor, will spend the day in cap and gown taking part in each of the ceremonies to extend official campus greetings and congratulations to graduates and visitors.

The Muir College commencement is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. on the Mandeville Green, north of Mandeville Center near the "Sun God" sculpture. Bridget Asaro, a reporter for KFMB-TV and 1978 Muir graduate, will give the address. As in the past, Muir ceremonies will open with a bagpipe and drum processional in honor of John Muir's Scottish heritage.

The Warren College commencement will start at 10:30 a.m. on the south lawn of the Humanities Library. Dr. Roger R. Revelle, renowned oceanographer and population scientist and professor of science and public policy at UCSD, will address the graduates.

H. Stuart Hughes, UCSD professor of history and author of numerous books on European history, will deliver the graduate studies commencement address. The ceremony will start at noon in the Mandeville Center Auditorium. Each doctoral and master of fine arts candidate will be hooded by his or her dissertation advisor, a tradition that dates back to medieval times.

The Revelle College ceremony will begin at 2 p.m. on the lawn south of the Humanities Library. The speaker will be former UCSD chancellor John S. Galbraith, professor of history.

Third College will hold its commencement exercise at 3 p.m. on the Mandeville Green. Dr. Roger Molander, president of the Roosevelt Center for American Policy Studies, Washington, D.C., will give the address. In keeping with the tradition of the college, families will accompany students as they cross the stage to receive their degrees.

Receptions honoring the graduates will be held following each of the ceremonies.
