UCSD "FAMILY" DINNERS HELD THROUGHOUT SAN DIEGO

"Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" is the name given to 19 simultaneous dinner parties being hosted throughout San Diego on Sunday, April 13, for alumni, faculty, staff and students of UCSD.

The dinners are being hosted primarily by UCSD alumni, with the Oceanids and the UCSD Medical Center Auxiliary acting as co-sponsors for this ambitious undertaking. The 250 guests participating in the event have been divided into individual parties, each having a mix of faculty, staff, students and alumni. The parties will reflect the entertainment styles of the host couples: one group is meeting at the La Jolla Cove for an alfresco dinner; another will include special entertainment.

According to the co-chairs of the event, Carrie Wilson, of the Alumni Association, and Suzy Ticho, of Oceanids, the goal of the evening is straightforward: to give members of the large and growing UCSD community a chance to get to know each other better.

Hosts include John and Ruth Anne Annaloro; Bob and Mary Ellen Cain; John and Barbara Cambon (he is Alumni Association President); William and Sharon Fitzmaurice; Kevin and Kim Forrester; Linette Guarano; Karl and Greet Hostetler; Bert Kobayashi; Dwight and Eleanor Little; Samuel and Laura Long; Dan and Carol Rodriguez (he is director of the Alumni Association); Lu and Georgina Sham (she is President of Oceanids); Fred and Sally Spiess; Robert and Barbara Starkey; Susan Taylor and Earl Barr; Harold and Suzy Ticho; Terry and Maggie Turner; Wayne and Carrie Wilson, and Nathan and Bonnie Zvaifler.
