

Winners of the 24th Annual High School Honors Mathematics Contest

May 18, 1981

The winners of the 24th Annual High School Honors Mathematics Contest were announced Saturday night (May 16) at an awards ceremony held at the University of California, San Diego.

The contest is jointly sponsored by the UC San Diego Department of Mathematics, the Greater San Diego Mathematics Council, the California Mathematics Council- Southern Section, and the Departments of Education of San Diego City and County.

The contest was held May 9. The winning teams in order of finish were: City Schools Division--Clairemont, Mission Bay and La Jolla; County Schools Division-- Helix, Poway and San Dieguito; Small Schools Division-- Bishop's, Gompers and Hoover. Individual winners were: Geoff Canyon of Helix High School (first), Shawn McCarty of Poway High School (second), Tony Lee of Crawford High School and Scott Ugoretz of La Jolla High School (tied for third), and Ariel Navarro of Mira Mesa High School (fifth).

The contest is in the form of a two-part examination, with each part lasting 1-1/2 hours. Students participate as members of teams sent by their high school.
