SPEAKER: Clyde Ostler (UCSD Class of 1968, Revelle College), Vice Chairman of Wells Fargo and Company

TIME: 2:30 p.m., South Lawn of Galbraith Hall, Revelle Campus

Clyde Ostler was graduated with Revelle's charter class in 1968, a mathematics major. He attended the University of Chicago and in 1970 received a master's degree from the School of Business. He joined the Wells Fargo Bank in 1971, and since 1977 has occupied various positions of vice-presidency in management sciences, planning and control, and corporate finance, and for the past nine years held senior and executive vice-presidencies until his promotion this year to vice chairman of branch banking administration. Ostler is the first alumnus to have a child enrolled and graduating from UCSD. His daughter, Jessica, is a member of Revelle College's 1990 graduating class. Ostler lives in Corte Madera, CA.
