MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: A conference on "Political Correctness: What Is This Movement Sweeping the Academy and Society?"

DATE/TIME: Saturday, November 9, 1991 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Price Center, University of California, San Diego

BACKGROUND: "Political Correctness" or "PC" is the newest buzz term sweeping the country. But what exactly is it and in what ways does it impact college campuses and society in general? Is it a new tyranny and dangerous diversion, or the foundation for a new world and social order? Noted educators from around the country will be on hand to formally discuss political correctness and engage in dialogue with attendees on what has become an important aspect of contemporary social policy development.

SPEAKERS: Dr. J. Douglas Canfield, University of Arizona Dr. Paul Lewis, Tulane University, Dr. Mary Hoover, San Francisco State University

SPONSORS: Student Affirmative Action and Human Relations Programs

CONTACTS: Anthony Jemison, Student Affirmative Action, and Human Relations Programs, 534-6708 or Pat JaCoby, University Communications, 534-7404
