

July 1/55
before birth of Sarah.
and
after birth of child.

You were but too sensible my Dear Cousin how much & how long I sin'd in secret at a shock I met with which need not be repeated nor till since our being at Patrick I thought I had lost yr Love & that you sin'd incircled with that bond that you could not soon leave it, however all that clar'd up you convinicd me I thought of yrs love & behavior in a most tender manner & I esteem'd myself one of the happiest women nor ever once suspected you or would harbour any thoughts that could give me pain, on the assurance you had given me, I thought but of parting from our 2 mothers & the reflection on both their behaviors often caus'd tears w<sup>ch</sup> you I may say kiss'd off, my happiness in you was so great I dreading to loose it & often declar'd my self in a most positive manner against my stay least it should be attempted you know it was often the fear of my old complaints increasing in the warm weather, the dread of parting from my 2 boys & unborn infant, but above all all the fear of being separated from you gave me terrors more than I can express, you knew my thoughts of the creatures & of yr going to them & then to me was what I could not bear the declaration I made to you of my resolution on that head, & to part from my Dearest Tommy that I doated on even in the midst of yr inadvertence & to so great a degree after our felicireisement & enjoyment of it so completely was worse then death to me, I often talk'd with you to see if twas possible for you to live without renewing yr commerce them & I found by yr talk you could not & when I repeated my resolution to you one day ask'd me if I would not compleat the work I had began & would I leave you for one transgression this was in a very falk entreaty & I often thought w<sup>t</sup> it seriously but such was my love I could not break it & told you so & after my disappointment, that I grew so big I card not to revenge hurt to my child I then found how cruel my base was, then thoughts of parting from you was too great & yet every night or morning I was in pain & concern for you, you my Dr Cowin that have often bad me let reason tongue my passions, but I my Dr had love to you & tenderness to my 3 Dr babies & give one leave to say hatred to the crew about me to conquer w<sup>t</sup>: after 10 years love or disquot was too hard lines for me to follow when you could not conquer one passion that was indeed wrong, I saw it & pitied you & thought that I would make you the offer I did, & if it was possible I would complete my work for you often kindly said I made you ashamed & I thought that the only way to conquer & again I thought that if it would not do that way it would at least give you ease & satisfaction & I have often said my. Cowin I could die for you, now I again repeat it I would die 1000 death rather than give you pain, or to give any satisfaction you know the rest & may judge the pangs I've gone through even to the other morning the assurance you have given me has only added to my concern to think you should bear the least ill consequences on my acct: when I wish to give you pleasure I let my sufferings have been what they would I card not do no one had seen them or you have been so very uneasy as you have been, now I think only Cowton hard my base has been & is to be compelled to stay on these terms, to love you to distraction to wish to give you happiness every way yet to suffer so much myself & by these sufferings to make you uneasy to do it huff me & show me more of yr temper than anyone ever

You thought you had yr self to be harassed so by all round me condemned & thought unkindly off oh how ~~could~~ I support or think of life in this distracted way about you with the causes of my woe ever before you uneasy to do it yet so kind to scruple it offering its promise what I knew you could not perform without reason to yr aid & then you to be uneasy had I claimed that ~~woman~~ would you not have thought unkindly then or would it have shewn my love, but in this bitter Struggle my heart terror approach'd to parting there I was lost in the parents struggle & the hurry of all round me & you made a hasty conclusion w<sup>t</sup>: we may both be sorry for at least myself as I had rather suffer alone but as you seem impatient at my melancholy mood & I have not time to say the half of my thoughts let this suffice to let you into my griefs, that you may not condemn me but pity me,

I love yr<sup>h</sup> too great a nicely to wish for any kind of promise & am too unhappy to loose you I love my Dr babies with a sincere love & think too much for their sakes to be a judge for myself & the Dr little one I have felt for already & dread what may yet feel for now my Dr reflect with yr self & as you know we all have different passions to contend with & I am so unhappy to be on the extreme, it is not in my power to conquer mine nor would I wish it for I cant survive the loss of yr love or think of living in pain as I must do without yr tender endearments, therefore my dearest Cow live to enjoy yr self in what manner you like best suffer no pain on my acct: or think on me for I can die for you but not live without you believe & pity me forgive & if you can love for I wish to deserve

Hall Family Papers and Sugar Plantation Records

1709 - 1892

MSS.0220

Oversize: FB-225-76

CORRESPONDENCE - Mary Hall [mother] to Thomas Hall, undated

Copyright: UC Regents

Use: This work is available from the UC San Diego Libraries. This digital copy of the work is intended to support research, teaching, and private study.

Constraints: This work is protected by the U.S. Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S.C.). Use of this work beyond that allowed by "fair use" requires written permission of the UC Regents. Permission may be obtained from the UC San Diego Libraries department having custody of the work (<http://libraries.ucsd.edu/collections/mscl/>). Responsibility for obtaining permissions and any use and distribution of this work rests exclusively with the user and not the UC San Diego Libraries.