

Literature Department faculty members receive honors

May 12, 1988

Contact: Paul Lowenberg, (619) 534-3120

LITERATURE DEPARTMENT FACULTY RECEIVES HONORS

Several faculty members in the Department of Literature at the University of California, San Diego have won awards recently.

Don Wayne, an associate professor of literature, has won a Guggenheim Memorial Foundation Fellowship as well as a Fellowship from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Huntington Library in Pasadena.

Department chair Don Wesling has been appointed a Faculty Exchange Scholar at Leningrad State University. He will teach at the university from September 15-November 30, and will be one of the first professors to participate in the newly created UC-Leningrad State research exchange set up by the Education Abroad Program.

The Association of Chinese Writers in Taiwan has given Professor Wai-lim Yip's book "Thirty Years of Poetry" its "Best Poetry Award."

And Masao Miyoshi, who holds an Endowed Chair in Literature, has received an award from the Joint Committee on Japanese Studies of the American Council of Learned Societies and the Social Science Research Council to undertake research on a project titled "The Shosetsu, Novel, and Other Narratives: Colonialism and Fictional Form."

(May 12, 1988)