

A dixieland jazz concert and dance on campus

November 25, 1966

A dixieland jazz concert and dance, featuring the South Market Street Jazz Band, will be held at 8:00 p.m. Sunday, December 4, in the main cafeteria of Revelle Commons at the University of California, San Diego. The concert, billed as "just a fun time the week before finals start," is open to the public and is intended as a community gathering rather than a campus project.

The concert is being sponsored by the residents of Galathea Hall, a women's residence dormitory in Revelle College at UCSD. Admission is 25 cents for UCSD students and 50 cents for non-students. Pizza and soft drinks will be sold during the concert.

(11/25/66)