

Provost Paul Saltman to fill 2-month vacancy as Chancellor

June 2, 1971

BERKELEY, California, June 4

Dr. Paul D. Saltman, Provost of Revelle College at the University of California, San Diego, has been named to assume the responsibilities of the office of Chancellor at UCSD for a period of two months during Acting Chancellor Herbert York's absence abroad.

Saltman, who was named by President Charles J. Hitch, will serve from July 1 to September 7.

Dr. York has been serving as Acting Chancellor since the resignation of Dr. William J. McGill to become President of Columbia University last year.
