

Most P. & gently Bro.

Bristol Xth of 2^d 1713

I wrote to you by y. Rebecca Capt. Garmston, & again by Capt. Chaloner, w. Skope. got safe to hand, to w. I refer you.

This now goes by Capt. Smith to y. following Accts. of my health &c. Since. I cannot say I am very well, nor y. I have gain'd much strength since my last, for y. season for bathing, most approv'd on bath in some time past, but I being desirous to make y. best on't finding at first some good still bath'd, & have taken cool again, much to my prejudice, but still live in hopes, for my physician & others who hath experientia the vertue of y. Waters, tells me tis y. nature of them to weaken & for they strengthen w. in time of bathing, & for y. I'll defer going in for a time, or till y. winter be over, w. I find daily approaching by the coldness of y. weather, w. is already very piteous (for I am forced now to write by a fire) & I fear will be troublesome to me, & would give me more, had not a kind & loving bed-fellow, but every body gives me hopes, y. y. Spring, w. y. blessing of God, will properly return me my looks & health, w. I hope my next will give an Acct. of.

My P. Bro. I hope, w. need not press you for a fresh supply, by y. leade, on whom I shall assure, w. if you can spare me, w. I'll be very oblig'd, for I would willingly, carry over a cargo w. me, when I get w. I hope will be y. next fall, & I find sundry commodities here very vendable, in our Island, to be had for ready money at y. buyers own prices, not but I can have w. Good I will, but I find w. most consideration of w. hope will engage y. to favour my request.

My Spouse begs y. kind Acceptance of a dozen turn'd in the newest fashion & much worn here, she is at present much indig'd & so is often poor Girl, w. y. Effects of Matrimony, she desires y. send her some good Sugar, for Sweden pop for y. bagging, & I beg to send me some Balls of good Chalk Cut, in y. same, w. may be put near each head of y. to save me y. duty, w. is heavy, w. worth on't for they usually draw in y. Bilge. I further Intreat y. to send me a small Cassell of Seltziva, I should wish it of Pours Bowring, & let Capt. Smith bro, who goes mate of y. Shipp, have y. charge of them, he desires to know nothing of them, he being sworn to render a Just Acct. of every thing on board.

Capt. Smith promises he'll let you hear from him as soon as he Arrives, & I hope, y. ll. doe me y. favour to ride, to come to see him & acknowledge on my behalf y. many favours I have rec'd. from him, & oblige me so far as to add to his sea store home, & y. I'll hear from him of me more particularly than I can write, I hope you have got his plank ready for him, & y. will prove to content, I shall be well pleas'd. As for next I refer you to y. factors & so conclude, having not more to add, save our sincere desires of being Commended to y. all as becomes us, & y. I am
