

Annual San Diego regional Parents Council Dinner to be held for parents of Muir College students

November 1, 1974

Some 100 parents of students attending John Muir College of the University of California, San Diego will attend the annual San Diego regional Parents Council Dinner Thursday, Nov. 7, at the Atlantis Restaurant.

Dr. John L. Stewart, Muir College provost, will be featured speaker at the event, according to H. Bailey Gallison, of La Jolla, Muir parents council chairman.

The program, which will highlight student life at UCSD, will also include brief talks by several current students and recent alumni of Muir College.

No-host cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m. in the West Room with dinner scheduled for 7:30 p.m.
