UCSD CHANCELLOR'S ASSOCIATES TO RECOGNIZE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE

Distinguished Service medals will be presented to Lawrence B. Robinson and R.B. Woolley Jr., both of La Jolla, during the annual spring meeting of the University of California, San Diego Chancellor's Associates May 29 in the Birch Aquarium at Scripps.

The meeting also will include a talk on "Bioengineering, Biotechnology...Health and Wealth" by Shu Chien, Ph.D., M.D., UCSD professor of bioengineering and medicine. He will discuss advances in bioengineering and partnerships with medicine, industry and the community.

An outstanding advocate for higher education, Robinson is being honored for his role in helping establish the Graduate School of International Relations and Pacific Studies at UCSD as well as his dedication and participation in other campus endeavors. Woolley is being recognized for his key leadership role in a number of UCSD support groups and for fostering the partnership between the University and the community.

William E. Beamer, outgoing Chancellor's Associates chair, will be recognized for his past two years of leadership.
