I have appointed Jas. W. Hollister Deputy Treasurer, as a Supervisor can not hold it,

If M^cCoy pays in any money, give him a receipt in gross - that is received so much on acc^t of Licenses, so much on acc^t of Poll Tax & so much on acc^t of each thing, but you need not apportion it - and let Hollister sign the receipt as Deputy Treasurer.
& let M^cCoy leave a mem^o or copy of his statement with you.

Do not pay any orders on school Funds unless the bills have been approved by VanVolkenburgh & Wall

Memorandum

DATED,

A. D. 185

Thursday July 13th Sale of City Lands when the N.W. Cor of 1160 was put up. Gregory bid on it then Richter bid & ran it up to over $100-when Gregory said "his improvements were on that lot and if they ran it up on him he'd be God & not if he wouldn't make them pay for their lots De Wolfe said "why Gregory this lot does not touch your improvements at all does not come within - rods of them" Gregory reiterated that it did" when De Wolfe says "why you know it dont I measured it & have run the line & and then considerable was said about how Pascoe own it & what he said & De Wolfe offered to bet the price of the sale that it did not touch his improvements.

Cleveland got excited & talked about ~~the~~ new comers trying to get away the improvement from old settlers that it was a shame & said considerable but I dont remember exactly as I was Auctioneer.

^{9th bid} No one bid against him on the other 3 lots & he got them at his own price. He had said he only wanted one 40 acre lot & so told me after the sale was over but bid on the others because they had run him up on the first lot. He bid off 5 lots.

after the sale I told him I thought he was wrong that I did not believe the first lot touched his improvements, he said De Wolfe knew it did & promised not to bid on it & he was a damned liar if he said he did'nt I said Pascoe didnt think that lot touched your improvements, he says he is a d-d liar if he says so. I'm tating, how I dont know. but I said if you said so you are a d-d liar, or if "you said I said so or if you say I know it was so you are a d-d liar", some how I dont know exactly, but he says I said De Wolfe not you.

De Wolfe has since measured the land run the line and says it does not come within 250 feet of Gregory's land.

I told Gregory when tating with him that he might have had it all arranged amicably if he had only spoken to De Wolfe on the subject & told him what quarter he wanted he said he had done so - but I am certain he lied -

Now De Wolfe sent Ella to ask Sherman if he would not bring up from the Garden when he was coming up a key of water for them - he replied "Miss tell your mother I do not haul water for a living" and this after he had made offer to assist them in any way.

I boarded the man employed by Mr Campbell to clean out the disingenuous Cheat - for which I seem to receive an order on Mr Winder for $15 - at any time I ask for it - confidentially, will the order be good?

I ask because it particularly concerns me individually, and not my company Smith wonders why you do not write him if Winder is not able to, pay up - but thinks or seems to think you will fully attend to his interest - His confidence in you causes him to feel quite easy - He has also every confidence in Bro Winder's integrity

ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY MAGAZINE

FOR

BOYS AND GIRLS,

EDITED BY

J. T. Trowbridge,

Gail Hamilton,

Lucy Larcom.

MESSRS. TICKNOR AND FIELDS. Boston, have just begun the publication of this New Juvenile Magazine.

The staff of Contributors will include many of the most popular writers of Juvenile Works in America and England.

Captain Mayne Reid will write regularly for it Stories of Adventure, similar in captivating interest to those absorbing narratives "The Desert Home," "The Plant-Hunters," "The Forest Exiles," etc. He begins in the first number a new serial tale entitled "Afloat in the Forest." The second number will contain a short story by him complete in itself.

J. T. Trowbridge, the Editor who is well known as the author of "Father Brighthopes," and other charming popular Juveniles, will contribute to every number. He begins in the first number a story for boys, entitled "Andy's Adventures."

Gail Hamilton and Lucy Larcom, the Associate Editors, will preside over that portion of the magazine designed for girls, and in addition to their editorial supervision, will write regularly each month.

Mr. and Mrs. Agassiz will supply for early numbers papers on Natural History, with illustrations.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe will contribute to each number, commencing with a charming sketch, entitled "Hum, the Son of Buz."

Mrs. L. Maria Child, Editor of the "Juvenile Miscellany" and author of Edmund Kirke will write regularly, contributing to the first number a most interesting reminiscence of Southern experience, entitled "The Little Prisoner."

"Oliver Optic," one of the most popular and successful of American writers for the young, will contribute.

"Aunt Fanny," that eminently successful writer of Juvenile books, will also be a contributor.

Miss Harriet E. Prescott and Miss Rose Terry will furnish Stories and Sketches for its pages. Miss Terry has sent a story which will appear in the second number.

Mr. Whittier will contribute a prose article for the second number; and he, as well as other leading writers, will furnish appropriate poems and prose articles.

In addition to the writers named above, regular contributions will be furnished by RICHARD H. STODDARD, author of "Adventures in Fairy Land."

COL. THOMAS W. HIGGINSON.

GRACE GREENWOOD, editor of "The Little Pilgrim."

Julio Ossano says that yesterday in conversation in the Court House, Hays, Pendleton & Guadalupe Estrella they spoke very hard about me said that the bill I brought against Estet of Vetzgen was a robbery ~~se~~ Hays told the judge that he should not allow it without proofs of everything, not merely take my oath, that he should examine it ~~seriously~~ ~~se~~ ^{they said} that Bill told that by selling a portion of his stock (The San Jacinto stock I believe) he would pay off everything, and now these things in this great bill

Aug 9th So Memman says Hays told Mrs Lumberman that no matter whether she settled with me or not he was going to bring suit for the whole amount he was going to do it any how.

Jack Stuart says

Weed, what do you think about what I told you when Sue worked on the school house, what? why about Morse I saw how the cat jumped I knew he was climbing up to her, & you offered to bet he would go home & get married.

When Hollister proposed to McCoy that they should deposit the money in the settlement of the Bergman & Giftletter matter with some body in town say Morse. He said "I won't deposit it with him unless he gives me ~~the~~ Wells Fargo's receipt but as neither Hollister nor McCoy felt like asking me for it they arranged their business some other way.

This was about first November 67

McCoy

To be remembered the two faced —

Hollister says Geo Johnson said to him what did you put that name (meaning mine) on for + then scratched it off said he could'nt vote for me.

C. to day shewed me a letter written by S. to D. in which he calls Mrs DeWolfe a "whore" and that he was "shocked" by the outrageous indecency "of one of our women Mrs Morse gallanting her around &" even Morse himself took her to ride in his wagon "

"send me down a strapping whore that will handle the plow & spade while I luxuriate on my sofa" so that I may become as good an american as any of them I would like to have had one on steamer day to have pitched into the whalers and the other night to have thrown out among a lot of boisterous rowdies.

I heard Johnson telling the people at New Town that they were the only ones that knew anything, send me down that whore so that I may become an american I can talk through my nose cheat lie and prevaricate & I only need the whore to be a good american, well show ye yankees where ye are at the next election and Morse well dry up as City Trustee will he ever run for office again yes for these fellows never give it up, What do you think of this God d-d world anyhow, I am looking to whom your party to whom I have temporarily annexed myself will ^{nominates} elect for president, to see who I shall join next. nominate the right man of Calveshys principles and he will beat Grant easily but if not then that devilish butter will have a walk over & ye are dead.
