HONOR & RESURRECT: A QTPOC ART GALLERY

RECEPTION: OCT 30TH @ 6P
EXHIBITION: OCT 28TH -NOV 7TH
LOCATION: CROSS-CULTURAL CENTER

This is about a celebration of the life and legacies of queer & trans* people of color- both living and ghostly.

This art gallery will combine Day of the Dead and Transgender Day of Remembrance. This is one way to honor Queer and Trans* People of Color lives and connect the spirit of the living to those of the dead. This is to give name to radical QTPOC lives, whose suicides, murders, and poetry continue to haunt the living. This haunting doesn't have to be only deathly or foreboding. It can also give light and ánimo to those who are living and working to make this world more live-able. For more information, connect with Eliseo @ el.jrivas@gmail.com.

The UC San Diego Cross-Cultural Center is committed to being accessible to all who frequent our space, participate in our programs, and attend our events. If you require specific accommodations to fully access any of our programs or events, please contact Victor Betts at ybetts@ucsd.edu or (858) 534-9689

directed by SARAH WANSLEY

November 6-17 Mandell Weiss Forum Theatre

DRUMS IN THE NIGHT

Bertolt Brecht wrote Drums in the Night as a young man scarred by his experiences as a medic in World War I. Director Sarah Wansley's update tells the story of Kragler, an Iraq war veteran with severe PTSD intensified by his experiences as a POW. It's the increasingly familiar modern story of the soldier who makes the ultimate sacrifice for his country only to find that when he comes home it no longer feels like home. Wansley sees her version as a deeply disturbing nightmare. "I aim to put on stage the ugliest and most frightening parts of the culture I have grown up loving."

Director	Sarah Wansley
Scenic Designer	Andrea Healy
Costume Designer	Amy Sutton
Lighting Designer	Chris Lundhal
Sound Designer	Melanie Chen
