

Italian anthropologist to speak on the Invention of Somalia May 21 at UCSD

May 13, 1998

Media Contact: Jan Jennings, (619) 822-1684, jjennings@ucsd.edu

ITALIAN ANTHROPOLOGIST TO SPEAK ON THE INVENTION OF SOMALIA MAY 21 AT UCSD

Alberto Antoniotto, associate professor of anthropology at the University of Turin, Italy, will speak on The Invention of Somalia: The Rise and Fall of a State in the Horn of Africa at 4 p.m. May 21 at the University of California, San Diego. The seminar is free and open to the public.

Antoniotto is a visiting scholar at UCSD. He received degrees in economics from the University of Parma and in anthropology and political science from the University of Turin.

The seminar will be held in the Galbraith Conference Room, 4025 Humanities and Social Sciences Building, Muir College, on the UCSD campus. It is sponsored by the UCSD Department of History. For further information call 534-1997.

(May 13, 1998)