Kumul tour has yet to collect K123,000

PAPUA New Guinea Rugby Football League office has yet to receive K123,000 travelling

By Henry Morabang
Staff writer of Rugby League News

expenses from the European Kumul tour officials and players.

PNGRFL secretary Martin Adamson said the national team will depart for the tour in two weeks time but has yet to receive the K500 contribution from the players.

He said it was of paramount importance that they pay in advance so that the PNGRFL could get prepared before they left the country.

Mr Adamson said if the players did not contribute then there were many potential reserves in line.

But he added that it would be good if the selected players took the initiative and paid their K500.

The money was part of the travelling expense, he said.

Last chance for C'bridge Cup placings

By Henry Morabang
Staff writer of Rugby League News

Darius Salle will be against John Kuman at the five eight position to steal and master the game all throughout.

Again the Dolphin will certainly rely on New Guinea Island reserve flank Apia Anana for his goal kicking. He has proven in the latest performance when he almost kicked all the goals against Brothers of Kimbe last weekend.

Brothers on the other hand, will rely on the experiences of former greats, Ipe Hiheno, Joe Katsir and Benjamin Kimisive to pave the way for the Brother's victory.

The Bretherens forward pack will be engineered by captain Manken Ramu and he will be greatly assisted by Benjamin Kimisive, who was unfortunate to make it in the Kumul squad for the European tour.

Former Aussie rules star Paul Savua is also another man Dolphin should take note of. With his mighty Aussie rule torpedoed kicks he can gain momentum for his team, Brothers.

Again playing in the home ground, Brothers should not have any reason to lose the game.

While in Mt Hagen, Waghi Brothers take on another strong contender for the Cambridge Cup, Hagen Tigers in the main game of the week.

The game will be the centre of attraction as Hagen is the gateway of the Highlands provinces. Many thousands of spectators are expected to flock to Hagen rugby league oval to watch the encounter.

Tigers with the unknown quantity rolled out of its doldrums when it surprisingly struck out defending Cambridge Cup premiers, Port Moresby DCA in a tough encounter 9-8 two weeks ago.

Again the skipper in every game plays the leading role, so this time Markus Kup will lead the raid in Brothers territory. He will receive a helping hand from Michael Agra, Joseph Paka, Kerlus Kerua and Freddy Sinbuna.

The Hagen clash will be the focal point of all sporting activities in the Western Highlands and also in PNG.

Waghi Brothers, with former junior Kumul Philip Humar in the centre, would be up against the big guns from the Tigers yard.

Rugby league enthusiasts in Lae and Mt Hagen will witness some top class football as four top clubs in the country meet this weekend in a bid to secure a Cambridge Cup grand final berth.

As the Big League race approaches its end, many people predicted it will be a 3 way battle between Tigers, Lae Brothers and Bougainville Dolphin.

Certainly in Lae, the encounter between Bougainville Dolphin Lae Brothers would be a historic event for the lads from the "San kamap" province.

Last year, they went as far as the grand final when they lost to Seagulls. But now they have come this far which is a step away from the prestigious Cup race.

Dolphins with Atoi brothers Lauta at centre and Korea at forward, Blasie Golu and Apia Anana at flank, is set to meet the aggressive Tigers forwards pack.

Front line general and skipper Peter Kilory will lead the assault in the Brothers camp.

Lae Brothers action in 1983. Simon Elap initiates a move with John Kapo backing up.

WALLY not fair

Sir, With due respect to the referees who have refereed without fear and favour during the first round games of the Cambridge Cup competition, I was disgusted at the way Wally Ainui handled the Bomana (National Capital) Magani (Wabag) game.

Wally is a top referee and at times his refereeing is unbiased. But his performance in that game left a lot to be desired. Time and time again Wally allowed neck-high tackles from Magani players to go unnoticed. But when Bomana retaliated they were penalised unnecessarily.

Two decisions must be looked at again. In the first half Bomana prop John Supa went down in an attempted tackle landing on his buttocks but offloaded to a teammate who went over the line. Wally penalised John, but why? You know what is deemed to be a tackle. John was not tackled at all Wally - that cost us the 6 points that we could have won the game by. In the second half Ray Karaki took a placed kick after a Magani try. The ball did not make the 10 and Karaki was penalised, but why? Karaki never played the ball.

It was the Magani player who played the ball before it made the 10. You will see it very clearly on NTN. Bomana is the only team in the competition besides DCA who will play a fair game from beginning to the end, whether the referee is biased or not. Anyhow we will be back again next year and we hope Wally would have improved by then Bomana all the way.....

Permanent colours for zones

SIR,

Allow me to express my concern over a very important league matter. I am a rugby league fan through and through. Whether the Kumuls lose or not I will still support the greatest game of all.

The concern I have is regarding the team jumper colours that have been used in the past few years by the four zones. It seems that for every inter-zone trial or championship the teams are wearing different jumpers.

Some of the jumpers they use are those of clubs that play in the different leagues throughout the country.

The inconsistency in uniforms really confuses league fans and discourages future representative players with the cognition that the uniform is not special.

The regard for the representative jumper to be worn with pride is really at stake. I believe that each zone must adopt permanent zone jumper colours and designs to be worn always from now onwards.

In Australia for example, the Blue jumper is special to league players in New South Wales because it shows what they are - New South Wales representative players.

The same can be said about the maroon jumper in Queensland.

This concern goes to the other sports in PNG as well. At least a team should have one jumper colour every time it plays in a championship, etc.

I want the PNGRFL to act on this, and even draw up legislation to have teams participating in some permanent colours from now onwards.

When this is done the zone, trials and representative games will be more prestigious.

Yours in League
Basil M. Murian

PORT MORESBY colts team made up of promising players like Jeffrey Hoda, Stanley Haru, Steven Haro, Lucas Agi, Alphonse Umba and Richard Wagambie maintained Port Moresby's record against visiting teams by beating the Gold Coast Vikings 32-26. With the support of old hands Robert Jakis, Tati Ivara, Kelly Naru and Jack Harry.

In the opening minutes our men were put under a lot of pressure, as a result they resorted to individual play together with a lot of errors such as dropped balls. In the second half our men settled down and used the fleet footed backline for tries.

That game was intended to give our young players match exposure to big time football, it also gave the selectors an indication of what these players could do under pressure. Jeffrey Hoda, Alphonse Umba, Steven Haro and Richard Wagambie showed that they are more than capable to make an appearance in the Southern Zone side next year. This game brought out the best in these youngsters. If they continue to perform this way next year, they should be knocking on the door to representative football.

A combined National Capital performed creditably against Port Moresby Two but the effort was not enough to earn them a win against an equally talented Port Moresby two hookies. It is pleasing to see that generally the standard of performance by the NC men has improved drastically since the formation of that league in about 1980 when they were then known as the Suburban league.

In the other game Fairdeal Paga third grade put on a brilliant performance of solid defence, to completely outclass and annihilate their more mature Defence Reserve grade opponents, who are premiers of that grade this year. The blue boys despite receiving some very rough treatment from the green machines, stuck to the task to shoot down the soldiers to tune of 20-5.

In the Cambridge Cup finals this weekend Hagen Tigers look set to top the Wahgi Brothers in Mt Hagen, whilst Bougainville Dolphins look set to give Lae Brothers an even run. Dolphins did well to come from behind to defeat home team Ngatia Brothers who had thrashed Rabaul Muruks the previous weekend.

Having said that it would appear that Dolphins should by now be used to playing away from their home around, and that there should not be any crowd nervousness when they play Lae Brothers.

It would be good for rugby league if Dolphins and one of the Highlands teams play off for the big prize. Port Moresby and Lae have dominated play in the past two years since the inception of this format of Cambridge Cup.

A REFEREE is an essential part of any sport that is played and in Papua New Guinea this is no exception. At this stage of the development of sports in their country, referees must be competent and consistent in their rulings.

Many of the games that are being played in the country are going professional. Therefore the referee must not only know the fundamental rules of the game but must be able to apply them without partiality.

It is not an easy job to do and to find out how hard it is one has to actually take a whistle out to the oval or wherever it may be and referee a game, particularly in Port Moresby.

I say Port Moresby because without little doubt the standards of most of the games played throughout the country are set here. Rugby League, one of the games that has many players and followers have referees too.

It is the tendency of many club officials, followers and players to accuse or blame referees if their team or club loses a match. In many cases these accusations are obviously groundless. But where a referee has failed to be impartial and thinks he might get away with it "because the referee's decision is final," something must be done.

Many people still have the mentality to get and get. Unfortunately there are many referees who fall into this category. When we have referees who do the job for the love of it, come what may we should see a lot of improvement in the game. The Cambridge Cup games are on now and the first round is over.

Some teams have lost and others have won. I will say without doubt that a couple of the teams won because the referee had other things on his mind. I do not have proof and I will not mention names, but if the purpose of the Cambridge Cup is to promote the game as well as the company then the best referees in the country must referee the games.

Stiff-arm tactics, neck high tackles with the referee only a metre away leaves a lot to be desired.

The game played hard and fair with the referee applying the rules will go a long way in bringing good sportsmanship into the game.

Kimbe Brothers - they are out of the race now.

A disappointed Kimbe team bows out

ANOTHER great astonishment for this week was when unpredictable Bougainville Dolphin scraped off Kimbe Brothers hopes to play in the Cambridge Cup final in a come-back 42-32 win after Brothers led 28-12 at half time.

Again it was Kumul star centre Lautu Atoi who masterminded the win in the second half. Dolphins will proceed to the finals against Lae Brothers this weekend.

Dolphins came strongly in the second half to score 30 points to steal the game from Brothers who were at the clear lead at that time.

Dolphins led by Island Zone forward. Peter Kilori ran riot into Brothers camp after capitalizing on their first half errors.

Skipper Kilori was assisted by Korea Atoi (Lautu's brother) and dynamic lock Murphy 'Lawn Mover' Merabo to do the under water raid.

The backline was well manned by Lautu Atoi, Blaise Golu and John Miri. The engine room was well taken care of by Darius Sale and Lucas Manil.

Brothers registered only 4 points in the second half when Dolphins blocked the loopholes and limited scoring chances for the Brothers.

Brothers master tactician Darius Haili was forced to have some stitches on his eyebrows following a cut executed by his opponents.

Kimbe's sole international outshone his team mate by his devastating performance. He booted all his conversion kicks except one.

The most upset player in Brothers camp was flank Kama Narlusi, locally known as "Smok balus". He could not hold back his tears at the final whistle and let go a big man which really showed his disappointment when he almost scored a try but was caught by Dolphins players.

In Mt Hagen - Hagen Tigers still maintain their supremacy over other Highlands team to battle in the cup finals. In the latest edition, Tigers whitewashed Kundiawa Brothers 46-5.

Tigers skippered by old hands of Markus Kup has proved that their team is one to be reckoned with when they defeated DCA of Port Moresby in Hagen two weeks ago 9-8. And last weekend game they hammered Kundiawa Brothers.

Skipper Kup said after the game that "This should show our critics that our win against DCA was no fluke".

This weekend will be another interesting battle when Tigers take on Waghi Brothers.

Small crowd but a great performance

FOR the small crowd that turned up to witness the international match between Port Moresby and the visiting Australian Gold Coast Vikings, on Sunday September 20, the display by the visitors was indeed a great performance compared to the other teams which came here. Port Moresby won the game 32-26.

The visitors started off with much power and determination. They took control of the entire first half, as they did not have much trouble with the tropical heat of Port Moresby. They were in the country early enough to become accustomed to the climate here.

The captain of the Port Moresby select side and former Kumul prop, Robert Jakis was the only exception in the line up. He was side lined with a serious knee injury for the final round of the Moresby league. Despite this he played his guts out.

Apart from the Jakis Moi Ganiga, Tati Ivava, Richard Wagambie, Stanley Haru, Joe Mirisa and replacements Alu Poka, Steve Haro, Jeff Haoda and Daroa Ben Moide were instrumental throughout.

Kimbe switches to touch

KIMBE rugby league ended its league season on a low tone when its participating team in the Cambridge Cup competition Brothers bowed out of the race after a disappointing 42-32 loss to Dolphins of Bougainville last week.

Brothers loss last week really struck the hearts of its fans. Even the league boss Gerry Luru was at a loss for words. On the other hand, Mr Luru and his secretary Brian Tapa were happy because Brothers loss had given them some time to get some rest.

by HENRY MORABANG
Staff writer of Rugby League News

Both were the busiest men of the league season, organising games and also organising the big Cambridge Cup race. If Brothers had won, then they would be flat out meeting various commitments.

However, this is not the end of league fans. Clubs and fans in Kimbe will continue their season in another manner - touch football.

President Gerry Luru said, the association had donated K1,200 to sponsor the Touch competition in Kimbe town.

Kiunga's first big match

WAHGI Brothers kept their cool in the Kiunga heat to defeat the home team Magani 34-8 in the first round of the Cambridge Cup, two Sundays ago.

The boys from Banz played top class pressure football for the full 80 minutes to bundle out their Kiunga opponents.

The Brother's rock tight defence and brilliant team work shattered any Magani chances to dominate the game.

The Wahgi team used its bigger forwards up front to pave the way for their backline to score.

Brothers right wing Paul "Pussy" Gomas led the charge with four tries, with outsider Philip Humar. Halfback, Michael Gisang (Junior Kumul) and fullback Thomas Tumbo each scoring a try. Tumbo also kicked 3 goals.

Despite the brothers onslaught, Magani provided stiff resistance with halfback Mawun Katop and prop Ware Potang providing the defence around the rucks. Katop also applied pressure on Brothers with excellent touch-finding kicks.

Magani second rower Gawi Irie kicked two penalty goals in the first half, and prop Madsep Siebert scored a try in the dying stages of the first half. At half time Brothers 18 led Kiunga Magani 8.

The one thousand paying spectators thought that Magani would make a one of their typical second half come - backs, but this was not the case.

Magani's Katop was replaced at half time because of a head injury and so was centre Mare Wape.

Without Katop there was no sting in the Magani attack and defence, and Brothers ran in four tries in the second half to seal the game at 34-8.

The bigger Brothers pack won the scrums 13-8, while international referee Graham Ainui awarded 11 penalties to Magani and 7 to Brothers.

The heat was a shock to the Brothers players and their lock and captain Johny Sakul said, "Playing in Kiunga is like playing hell."

A profusely sweating Brothers Coach, Tony Rodgers said, "The game was hard and hot."

Brothers did not worry about the heat last weekend when they played Wabag Magani at Wabag. Brothers bundled Magani out of the Cambridge Cup race with an 18-4 beating.

Brothers Paul Gomas was named the best player for his team, while the Magani's prop Ware Potang was chosen the best for his team.

The member for the Western Provincial seat, and minister of Physical Planning presented a cheque for K600 to Brothers. He also presented a cheque for K400 to Kiunga Magani.
