

Attorney Mary E. Harvey to speak on summer in Mississippi at Scripps Institution of Oceanography.

July 16, 1965

Attorney Mary E. Harvey will speak on "Mississippi, Summer, 1965" at Sumner Auditorium, Scripps Institution of Oceanography, Friday, July 23 at 4:00 p.m.

Miss Harvey has been invited by the Committee for Arts and Lectures, University of California, San Diego to describe her experiences during a 10-day visit to Jackson, Mississippi, in June.

She worked in a legal office in Jackson during the visit to observe and participate in legal cases arising from programs of civil rights groups.

Miss Harvey has been a practicing attorney in San Diego for five years. First woman graduate of the University of San Diego, she completed undergraduate work in political science at the University of Chicago.

There is no admission charge to her lecture which is open to the public.

(7/16/65)