April 26, 1976

Four renowned filmmakers will present their films in "The Black Filmmakers Series" to be held on four evenings during May at the University of California, San Diego.

Films by Raymond St. Jacques, Christopher St. John, Brock Peters and Max Julien will be shown. The filmmakers will discuss their films after each screening.

"The program is composed of current films that are not black exploitation films," according to Dr. Luther James, UC San Diego drama professor and director of the Black Cultural Sequence. "They are written, directed and produced by blacks with a perspective responsible to the aspirations of black Americans."

Director Raymond St. Jacques will present "The Book of Numbers" Thursday, May 6. Director-producer Christopher St. John will present "Top of the Heap" Thursday, May 13. Producer Brock Peters will present "Five on the Black Hand Side" Thursday, May 20. Writer-producer Max Julien will present "Thomasine and Bushrod" Wednesday, May 26.

The films will be shown at 8 p.m. in room 107 in the Classroom Bldg. on the Third College campus at UC San Diego. The series is sponsored by the Black Cultural Sequence and Third College. Tickets are $1 for all students and $2 for general admission. A general admission series ticket can be purchased for $7. Tickets may be purchased at the UCSD box office.
