February 9, 1962

Roger Wagner will lead members of the chorus and orchestra of the University of California, Los Angeles, in an all-Mozart program at Sherwood Hall, Art Center in La Jolla, at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, March 1.

Principal work on the program will be Mozart's last composition, the Requiem Mass. Soloists will be Maurita Phillips, soprano; Richard Levitt, counter tenor; Richard Robinson, tenor; and James Tippey, bass.

Roger Wagner, one of this country's great musicians, is the director of choral music at the Los Angeles campus of the University.

The concert is sponsored by the University's Committee for Intercampus Arts Exchange.

Tickets for the event will cost $2.00 general admission, $1.00 for students. They will be available February 13 at the Art Center in La Jolla; at University Extension, 1221 Fourth Avenue, San Diego; and at the Cashier's Office on the San Diego campus. Mail orders should be sent to the Committee for Arts and Lectures, University of California, San Diego, Post Office Box 109, La Jolla, California.
