

THE COMMITTEE to present series of skits, sketches

April 9, 1971

THE COMMITTEE, San Francisco's famous satirical review, will present a program of skits, sketches and songs in the University of California, San Diego Gymnasium Saturday, April 17, at 8:00 p.m.

Material for the show is derived from wholly-improvised performances based on suggestions from THE COMMITTEE's San Francisco audiences.

The cabaret-type theater opened its doors on April 10, 1963, and was originated by producer-director Alan Myerson, formerly of "Second City" in Chicago.

Now in its eighth uninterrupted year, THE COMMITTEE has played a limited ten-week engagement On Broadway in New York and a second company has had an extended two-year stay in Los Angeles' Tiffany Theater.

Admission prices for the performance are $2.00 for general admission, and $1.00 for UCSD students with ID.

(April 9, 1971)