NEWS

Season '86 — Issue Number 21 — ends 30 July

The high flyers Air Niugini caused a major upset when they clawed big bird Nissan Tarangau 36-8 on Sunday.

Air Niugini restored its form of last year when it went to the grand final against West.

The PX backline was engineered by Saea brothers Kepi and Eka plus former Kumul wing Bob Tolick while skipper Lawrence Gandi, Joe Ogogo and John Keai kept the engine rolling in the frontline.

Nissan Tarangau and 'big boy' Paul Piru with service from Cement Mou still lack ample support and fitness from others. Despite of hard sprinting and bag tackling sessions in the camp Tarangau was still no match against the national flag carrier's team.

Tarangau greatly missed the capable hands of Mafu Kerekere and John Ben Moide. Mafu Kerekere is the stuff for the Kumul squad.

This Tarangau pacy winger is equipped with talent, speed, attacking brilliance and thinking play.

Tarangau's hard runners John Ben Moide, Paul Piru and Joe Madidu had instigated many scoring opportunities but they lacked support from their team mates.

AUST'S SECOND VICTORY IS PNG'S THREAT

From RLN's man in NSW
STEVEN MASCORD

AUSTRALIA's efforts for its tour of PNG and France this year received a giant boost on Saturday with a 29-12 victory over New Zealand in the second Test at the Sydney Cricket Ground.

In an outstanding match, the Aussies scored five tries to two, with a Kiwi revival early in the second half enough to keep the crowd of 34,302 on its feet.

The win clinched the three test series for Australia after its 22-8 win in the first match on a mud soaked Car Law Park in Auckland two weeks ago.

"We have now mastered completely two different sets of conditions which is a good sign," said an obviously proud Australian coach Don Furner.

"The Kangaroo tour is a big incentive now. There's certainly something here to build on," Don said.

COMPETITION leader Hobart West should add another two points to its tally this weekend when it takes on Twisters Brothers.

The Crocodiles will not be given meat, but snacks to munch.

Sunday's main game's outcome depends very heavily on the forward pack that has the mobility and co-ordination.

Both teams are on a par in the forwards. And it will be a crowd pleaser.

West's 38-22 drubbing of Thiess Kone Tigers last Sunday was the result of heavy forward play.

Big Henry Miro and Celcius Kose should kick their pack into gear to match Brothers' young Peter Peng and pugnacious Mewei

by Ronald Bulum

Launa.

But the Brothers' pack should not be underestimated. They are a pack huge mobile men.

Incumbent Kumul rake Roy Heni could use his experience and get more than his fair share of the scrum wins. His goal kicking ability is probably the winning factor. If he zeros his right boot Wests will be having a hard time.

Out wide, Brothers' Daniel Piskul and Alex Eremas should take extra care because they will be up against West's flying flanker Pukari Ovasuru.

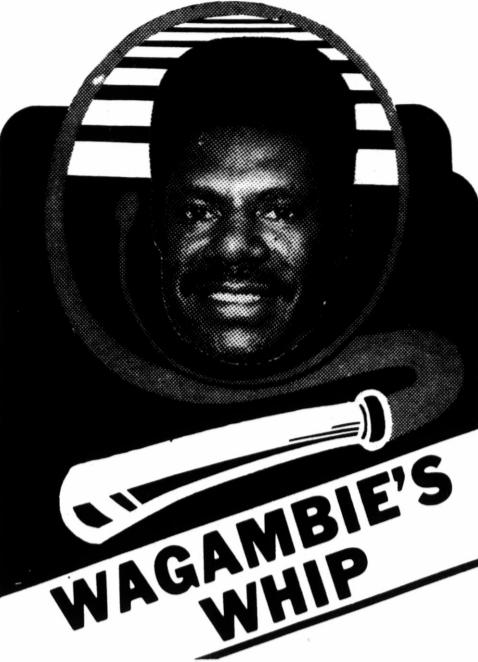

Whoever of the two Brothers' men that is put is mark Ovasuru must fall back and help his full back in case Ovasuru poses as a threat with his pace.

Isa Mai at five-eighth should be able to fairly distribute the balls from Alu Poka to Jim Moore and Jack Harry which should eventually fall nicely into the hands of Ovasuru to cross the line.

If West lose this game it won't really matter as it is clearly on the top of the ladder on 30 points. Stalking behind is Kis DCA on 28 points.

Brothers, however, need to snatch the two vital points to keep its fifth spot intact. After winning against East, Brothers has moved up on to equal fourth placing with Nissan Tarangau.

It clicked at last

WARDS Air Niugini has finally clicked, I have always maintained that the highflyers had a good team, but the combination has been missing.

The airliners defence was very compact, which forced Tarangau into all sorts of bother. The hero of the game without question was John Keai.

John continuously raided the opposition defence, creating a lot of scoring opportunities for his team. His effort was rewarded with two good tries. Other players who stood out were John Gabisini at five-eighth, Camilo Inape and Kepi Saea in the centres. Camilo was especially impressive with his solid tackles, and was a hard customer to reckon with when in attack.

Nissan Tarangau without the services of Clemet Mou and Mafu Kerekere, fell apart at the seams. It did not perform anywhere near the form that made it premiership material in the game against Hobart West two weeks ago.

Tarangau's defence was not worth a mention, for a team vying for a final fire slot. Laipen Wallen did not play as well as he did against West, Joe Madidu and Paul Piru had a resonable game. On the whole Tarangau resorted to individualism when the going got tough, that was the major factor to its downfall.

The main game of this weekend is bound to draw on Hobart West in what promises to be a crowd pleaser.

Brothers has fired at the right time, when other clubs are showing signs of declining. According to coach Nelson Passingan, Brothers will win this game in the backline where Bire Kimisofa at five-eight will dictate play. He will be assisted by Joe Nipal at halfback, Ray Arua at inside centre and Jack Thomas at outside centre. Brothers has a lot of pace in the backs and Passingan's confidence can become a reality. Brothers' Kumul rake Roy Heni will be relied upon to win a mammoth share of ball to make things easier for his teammates.

Hobart Wests will not want to go down too easily, so a tough encounter is expected. Young hooker Luke Kare is quite reliable, and is expected to push Roy Heni for ball possession. West has the upper Kouru brothers, Haoda and Gideon.

I think, Brothers has more incentive to win, and that's what we expect will guide Brothers on to victory.

In other games on Sunday, Defence will wallop Davara East and DCA should beat Tarangau.

On Saturday RLC Paga should whitewash Kool Magani, and Wards Air Niugini should collect another two points at the expense of Watkins Kone Tigers.

Medics: A threat in UPNG League

THE FIRST UPNG Rugby League competition kicked off at the weekend.

In the first game on Sunday at the university rugby union oval no. 1, Blue Spiders in their new blue uniforms came from behind to snatch a win. They were trailing 4-8 at half time.

Lae United were the first to score when left winger Poana Kalo raced over the tryline to score an unconverted try and Lae led 4-0. Fifteen minutes later, Kalo went in for another try.

Young Oromba Dumba added another four pointer for Lae.

And that was all for Lae.

Blue Spiders retaliated with an unconverted try when winger John K raced over the tryline for his team to trail 4-12. And then Spiders replacement Delu Siune took the field afresh and sealed the game with two runaway tries and a conversion.

In second game Medics proved to be a threat to other teams in the competition with good defensive and attacking football to dump Northern 28-6.

And in the main match of the day played at 3.30pm NGI edged out a speedy Southern side. Man of the match Southern's Peruka Peni opened the scoreboard with an unconverted try. He later scored another two tries, of which one was converted, to give Southern the lead.

However NGI came out with a try to Kavin Paita after receiving a pass from Dominic Rangan.

Within 15 minutes into the second half NGI's Fidelis Semoso made a break in the centre to score under the post. Fullback Willie Moab easily converted.

Southern retaliated with two unconverted tries only to see NGI ground two converted tries.

Best for NGI were Fidelis Semoso and Lamiller Pawut while Peruka Peni and Silas Wagi stood out for Southern.

UPNG Rugby League association draw for July 27:

Medics vs Brothers — 3.30pm (main game)

Magani Magic!

by IAN KAKARERE

MAGANI turned on its magic brand of football when it defeated Royals 24-14 in last Sunday's Kiunga Rugby League action.

Magani's magic came from physical fitness and team work. Because Magani was missing most of its forwards through injury or work, it had to use some backs to play in the forwards. For instance, half back Billy Eva was switched to second row and centre Ase Stokes to lock.

Royals was also facing injury problems with pace setter Nema Kare while top goal-kicker Aigol Waninara has gone finish. So Royals had to use up and coming reserve graders Mokono Karuga at wing and Steven Haia at half back.

Magani's young reserve grade hooker Keba Bomaing had a game as big as his heart.

Both teams were swinging the ball out wide and Royals outside centre Mark Malowa was the first to score after a classy backline movement.

Magani soon retaliated when inside centre Willie Jagara crossed for a try to have the score at 4-all.

Royals' five eighth Tom Penny, who had a brilliant game sneaked through Magani's defence to score a try to have Royals leading 8-4.

Magani second rower Gawi Irie narrowed the score by kicking a penalty goal.

Magani's Jagara set up half back Fred Lifu for a try with a chip kick over the Royals defence which Lifu touched down to have Magani leading 10-8 at half time.

Royals' replacement centre Willie Vele scored a try when Magani fullback Morgan Pewamu dropped the bomb in his goal and Vele touched the ball down. Versatile Vele converted his own try to have Royals leading at 14-10.

When the going gets tough the tough get going and Magani second rower Billy 'Ocean' Eva finally succeeded on his second attempt to equalise the score at 14-all.

Royals fullback John Viru dropped a Magani bomb which was picked up by outside centre Buge laba who dashed 30 metres for a try which was converted by second rower Eva.

Magani kept going when halfback Lifu split the Royals' defence to set up replacement centre Bamoro Olewale which had Magani defeating Royals 24-14.

In the reserves Royals defeated 10-4 and in the colts game Magani thrashed Rumginae Raiders 16-0.

In the other colts game K&T Transport and United No.2 team drew at six all.

In the reserve grade, United also had a good win by defeating K&T Country 12-8. In the colts division Magani defeated United 4-0.

This weekend is the beginning of the fifth and final round.

The Royals versus United clash on Sunday will be an exciting event with United looking for another win. United will have to do two things to win the game. And they are: to contain the Royals' forwards, and to get the ball out to the wingers.

Royals is also looking for a win and has to pick the best possible backline. Royals has the experience to win this one but it cannot win on experience alone.

Saturday's game between Magani and K&T Country could be affected by the construction work on the copper flue pipeline. Both teams have many employees of Ok Tedi or its contractors like Kiunga and Telefomin Transport.

Magani could win this one but K&T Country has always had a hoodoo on Magani and it could bring on a surprise.

Two faces of Moresby's Puksie

PHOTOGRAPHER Peter Moabe caught the two faces of the man with the lethal speed — Pukari Ovasuru last Sunday.

Ovasuru had a field day getting unwanted rides and lifting men twice his size and weight.

"Git off ma back Puksie," says Kone's Tony Kila while Puksie enjoys a piggy back ride.

Heave — ho and dump... hit the turf.

SCRUTINIZE
with
STEVE MALUM

THE LOCK FORWARD

The lock should be mobile at all times, linking the forwards with the backs.

He should skirt the rucks awaiting an opportunity to break through.

The lock should always be ready to take the place of the half-back or any other back who may be tackled and temporarily out of position.

He should have a close understanding with the scrum half on movements around the scrum base and in play-the-ball movements.

He should detach from the scrum as soon as the ball has been won and tail or link with the back line in support of the attack.

He must try to remain on his feet and back up each attacking movement.

He should try to protect his halves in attacking movements.

IN DEFENCE

The lock should concentrate on tackling the man with the ball both from the scrums and play-the-ball movements. At the scrum the lock should initially defend that side of the scrum opposite to his half.

IN ATTACK

He must break from the scrum as soon as the ball is lost and cover the movement of the ball preventing the opposition from making ground.

If he is going to stand out from a scrum set close to his line, he should position himself as an extra five-eighth. Positioning himself on the open side of the scrum gives his team an extra man in defence where it is needed most. The blind side is well covered by the scrum half, winger and breaking second-row.

As soon as the tackle is complete, he must regain his feet and move to maintain the cover defence.

He should fill the full-back's place when that player is out of position.

If called on to be part of the team's second line of defence he should be capable of devastating tackling.

IN GENERAL

A lock has a roving commission on the field. He should be mobile, fast and constructive and have the ability to initiate movements from the ruck fringe. All attacking movements should see him in support.

A lock who is not capable of getting the ball constructively from the forwards to his backs, severely limits the team's potential.

A man called 'Dunlop'

Gessau

Gebob

AS Kumul Reserve of '84 against touring British Lions, Gebob won his first big 'Man of the Match' award

by Ronald Bulum

DUNLOP! Yes that's what friends, fans, and team mates call him.

Who would be more aptly nicknamed under a brand of car rubber tyre that the bouncy Nissan Tarangau half Gessau Gebob.

He has been dubbed "Dunlop" because of his ability to cop bone crunching tackles but yet manage a pass or jump up immediately and play the ball.

Come the big men — he'll trim them down to size. Gebob's relentless defensive game has earned him the respect of a former PNG star back, Steve Malum. "Gebob is a very good individualist both in defence and in attack," says Malum. The witty little Gebob is, arguably, the best of the scrum-half breed in Papua New Guinea at present. How else could he have maintained the spot he won in 1984 against the touring British Lions?

Although named as a reserve for that Test, he was given the nod when Northern Zone five-eighth Tony Seeto was ruled medically unfit. Since that day he has always been the choice half. And he has clung on to it with charisma.

If it hadn't been for Poka Kila the former Kumul half, Gebob wouldn't be where he is. It all began at the dusty little Hohola field in 1982. Gebob, then playing for Hohola No.3 in the Suburban League, was spotted by Kila. By the way, Kila was also a driving force behind the recruiting and then emerging of another present star who was also with Gebob — he is none other than the pacey Mafu Kerekere.

Both were taken into the Tarangau camp and left at the hands of coach Clive Clerke to mould into future stars. Gebob admits that being at the top is not easy. He runs and exercises in his own time to keep fit.

cles by any means but rather a tough little guy. He stands at 5 foot 6 and weighs 72 kg.

Credit

Hence he whizzes past or ducks under defenders who are often left to grab the thin air behind him.

A lot of credit is what he gives to coach Clerke. "Clive is a very good coach.

"He helps me to train hard," he says with solemnity.

While holding on to the gold, red, and black jersey, he has picked up some prestigious awards at the top. Although named as the reserve back in that match against the Lions, he won the man of the match. In the same year Gebob snatched the man of the match in the Grand Final against DCA and tucked into his pocket a ticket bonanza, courtesy of South Pacific Island Airways for a trip to Guam. However, he didn't go any further than Jackson's Airport. The latest he notched was the K200 for the National Panasonic anything active, the electronic technician with BP Business Systems craves for the action he is missing off the field. He sits down and drags on an occasional cigarette with eyes squared to the video screen showing a detective scene.

Different

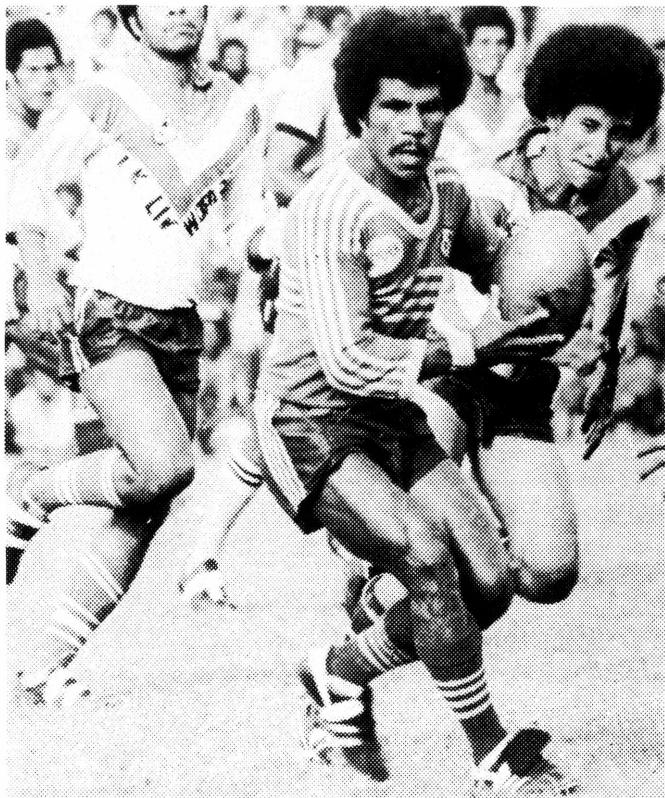

Well, people who go up must come down some day. Gebob is no different. He plans to retire at the "ripe old age" of 28. That's only two years away.

"I'll play for another two years before taking up something else," he says as his brown face easily creases in with a smile.

He hinted that it "maybe coaching" that he is going to do upon retirement.

For now, he says, he'd like to improve his kicking game which he feels is a weak facet to his otherwise very good game.

And now for the question that will have to be pondered by Rugby League fans: Will Dunlop steal the man of the match

The soft spoken Gessau Gebob in action in the Port Moresby League scene.

Royals down on two

by Kalabai Yabai

ONE time wooden spooner Appcat caused a major upset at Wau/Bulolo when it edged out Royals 16-15 at the main game last Sunday in Wau, denying Royals two competition points.

Appcats lead by Solin Tiba, John Sikari, Kiage Kube and Moses Senny managed to run away with the winning points.

However, Royals did not give up. They came in harder in the second half but time ran out on them.

The thriller was stimulated by both sides playing very well, until 20 minutes into the first half when Kiage ran over to score a try out wide converted by Moses Senny.

Royals came into full force when Mark Yamuze registered four points.

Before halftime Appcats added another four points through penalty kicks. And Royals pulled back one point on a drop kick from Simon Kapi.

In the second half, Royals' Gima Ai,

Simon Kapi, Sam Kafo and Ben Bade lead their boys through magnificent attack format inside Appcat's territory but lack of ability to finish the work moves denied Royals that victory.

Best for Appcat were Solin Tiba, Kaife Kiraza, Moses Senny, Kiage Kube and John Sikari while Gima Ai, Simon Kapi, Mark Yamuze, Ben Bade and Wilson Kindai worked hard for Royals.

In the earlier encounter NGG Tigers came in too strong for Bulolo Panthers dumping them 10-0.

Second victory threatens PNG

A try from New Zealand winger Dane O'Hari just after half time put the Kiwis back in the game after Australia led 18-6 at the break and for the ensuing 20 minutes the game was played at a break-neck speed, thrilling the large crowd. Despite some desperate defence and scintillating attack from New Zealand, Aussie half, Peter Sterling put the result beyond doubt with a calmly potted field goal in the 67th minute from 15 metres out.

Further Australian tries to five-eighth Bret Kenny and lock Wayne Pearce in the final six minutes hammered final nails into New Zealand's 1986 coffin.

The match was marked by spectacular debuts from new caps, winger Les Kiss (Australia), half Gary Freeman and hooker Barry Harvey (New Zealand).

Kiss, in particular caught the eyes, with Australian skipper Wally Lewis saying afterwards that the young winger "had the sort of debut to dream about".

Finding a kicked ball in the 25th minute on his side of halfway Kiss emerged to defenders with a brilliant swerve before putting infield and being halted five metres from the line. A superb one-handed pass to Gary Jack as he went to the ground.

Kiss, who joined North Sydney this year from Valleys in Brisbane said later that he was a bundle of nerves before the game.

"The worst part was when I was selected for the team. I was real nervous then, I couldn't believe it. Today, I tried to play as comfortably as possible."

With several brilliant runs, Kiss looks to have established himself as an international for many years to come.

New Zealand opened the scoring in the 13th minute with a good piece of backing up from five-eighth Olsen Filipana, with Gene Miles striking back for Australia soon after.

Then came the Jack try before Lewis touched down a minute before half time to give his team a 18-6 lead.

A disappointed Kiwi coach Graham Lowe told the press amidst the deathly silence of the New Zealand dressing room that none his team has "let the side down".

"They (Australia) are a great team like a side that had a few games together."

"We made too many costly errors."

The third test the two nations will play is on Tuesday at Brisbane's Lang Park under the lights.

New Zealand's next tour game will be against MacKay on Friday night.

"We will bounce back to win the third Test."

Both sides will meet Papua New Guinea Kumuls later this year.

Scorers, Australia: 29 G Miles, G Jack, W Lewis, B Kenny, W Pearce tries: M O'Connor four goals; defeated New Zealand 12 O Filipana, D O'Hara tries, O Filipana 2 goals at Sydney Cricket ground.

Where is the tryline? Can West's Jim Moore make it with the help of stocky supporter Haoda Kouru? West defeat Kone Tigers at Lloyd Robson oval, 38-22.

Me mudder

HAVE a dose of these baby-talk verses. It was seen on the living room wall of one of our young reporter's home.

WHO DONE IT?

When me prayers were poorly said
Who tucked me in me widdle bed
And spanked me till me arse was wed
Me mudder

Who took me from me cosy cot
And put me on the ice cold pot
And made me pee if I could not
Me mudder

And when the morning light would come
And in me crib me dribbled some
Who wiped me tiny widdle bum
Me mudder

Who would me hair so neatly part
And hug me gently to her heart
Who sometimes squeezed me till me fart
Me mudder

Who looked at me with eyebrows knit
And nearly have a king size fit
When in me Sunday pants me shit
Me mudder

When at night her bed did squeak
Me raised me head to have a peek
Who yelled at me to go to sleep
Me farver...

WESTS' sole expert, Jimmy Moore is obviously joining the crowd. Greeted yours truly with flawless K-Ave salutation and joined in heated conversation in Motu with fellow clubmates minutes later. It goes to show that the adage 'If you can't lick them, join them' will be around for ever.

HEADLINE seen on an overseas newspaper: 69 AND FRED IS STILL ON TOP.

A REPORT from Goroka tells of a very impressive and hush hush fighting display by a local player who is reputed to be a quiet religious type. We are told that the other evening outside Minogere, the forward took exception to abuse being heaped on his teammate — who was sporting a twisted ankle. Report has it that three young men were left stretched out on the poolside and it wasn't the forward and his mate.

SPORT fans be warned! Too much television or video can be dangerous to your health. American doctor has cited the case of a bartender, 40, who watched three football games and only moved from his chair during nine hours of viewing to get refreshments. Dr Paul Huang of Massachusetts general hospital said the result was a blood clot.

Perhaps, a strong reprimand is forthcoming from the Port Moresby Rugby League and indeed the clubs to prevent such incidents from happening again.

I mean, if strong action is being taken to discipline players, coaches and even officials at the senior level, what have we been doing to clear up the riff-raff at the lower level?
