

Friedrich Durrenmatt's "Play Strindberg," will be presented June 6-8

May 30, 1975

Three performances of Friedrich Durrenmatt's "Play Strindberg" will be presented June 6 through 8 by graduate students in the Department of Drama at the University of California, San Diego.

Curtain will be at 8 p.m. for regular performances June 6 and 7 and at 7:30 p.m. June 8 for a special performance for members and guests of the Alumni & Friends, UC San Diego. The play will be given in the UCSD Studio Theatre in Building 409 on the Matthews campus.

The comedy, an adaptation of August Strindberg's "The Dance of the Death," concerns the eternal triangle and the setting of the story is a boxing ring.

Directing the production is Frank Condon, a candidate for the Master of Fine Arts degree at UCSD.

The special Alumni & Friends performance will be followed by an informal discussion about the play with the director and cast and a wine and cheese party. Tickets for the June 8 performance are $2.50 and may be purchased from the Alumni & Friends office in Building 212 on the Matthews campus. Proceeds will go to the Alumni Scholarship Fund. For information individuals should call 452-4490.

Free tickets for the regular June 6 and 7 performances are available from the UCSD Drama Department in Building 407 on the Matthews campus. For information individuals may call 452-3791.
