ALL ACADEMICS AND STAFF AT UCSD

SUBJECT: UCSD Staff Associations

This is a reminder that a number of staff associations have received official recognition at UCSD to assist in creating a welcoming and nurturing environment for members of the UCSD community.

The UCSD Staff Associations listed below foster communication among University entities, assist in the recruitment and retention of a diversified work force, and pursue other goals of mutual importance. These groups sponsor educational programs and normally hold regular monthly meetings that promote networking and career development. Membership is open to all UCSD career and casual employees.

I strongly encourage all supervisors to be flexible and permit employees to attend the meetings and programs of these associations as long as the programs are secular in nature as part of normal University business, and their job responsibilities do not conflict with their participation.

Employees who wish to participate in any of these associations' meetings and programs that are secular in nature during scheduled work hours must obtain supervisory approval in advance.

The currently recognized staff associations are as follows:

American Indian Faculty and Staff Association
Black Staff Association
Chicano/Latino Staff Association
Community Advocates for Disability Rights and Education
Faculty and Staff Christian Fellowship
Pan-Asian Staff Association
UCSD Staff Association
Umbrella Group

More information may be obtained from the Human Resources Division of Equal Opportunity/Staff Affirmative Action at (858) 534-3694, or via electronic mail to lolvera@ucsd.edu.

Please post and/or route this notice and bring it to the attention of supervisors, timekeepers, and other appropriate department personnel.

women in the director's chair
1999-2000 national tour presents:

essential things

new film & video
from les/bi women

Memory Tracks

Jamika Ajalon 7:36 min 3/4"

On July 28, 1993, Joy Gardner, a Jamaican immigrant to London and mother of two, died as the result of a police raid on her home in an effort to deport her. Staged on the streets on London and in the imagination of the black lesbian protagonist, Memory Tracks seeks evidence of a sister from the past. Third World Newsreel 212/947-9277

I'm Starving

Yau Ching 12 min 16mm

An erotic love tale between a ghost that eats Chinese take-out menus and paper money, and an African American woman who eats only ramen, who cohabit a small apartment in New York's Chinatown. Frameline 415/703-8650

Two or Three Things But Nothing For Sure

Jane C. Wagner/Tina DiFeliciano 12 min 16mm

Set against the harsh backdrop of the poor, white American South of the 1950s, this is the condensed story of critically acclaimed author Dorothy Allison ("Bastard Out of Carolina"). Women Make Movies 212/925-0606

Cuerpos de Papel

Ximena Cuevas 4 min VHS

Using a popular Mexican love ballad, this computer-animated short visually maps the remains of a broken relationship.

Ximena Cuevas (Mexico City) 011-525-573-6129

Snow

Prudence Browne 3 min 3/4"

Confronting the ever-present street harassment of women, this video invokes the emotional experience of being verbally attacked.

Prudence Browne (Chicago) 773/486-6875

Your Mother Wears Combat Boots: Dyke Mothers Rant

Laurel Swenson 15 min 3/4"

This in-your-face diatribe from a group of single, low-income lesbian moms challenges heterosexist assumptions about the family unit, and takes on the LGBT community for its unresponsiveness to the needs of poor women raising children in their midst.

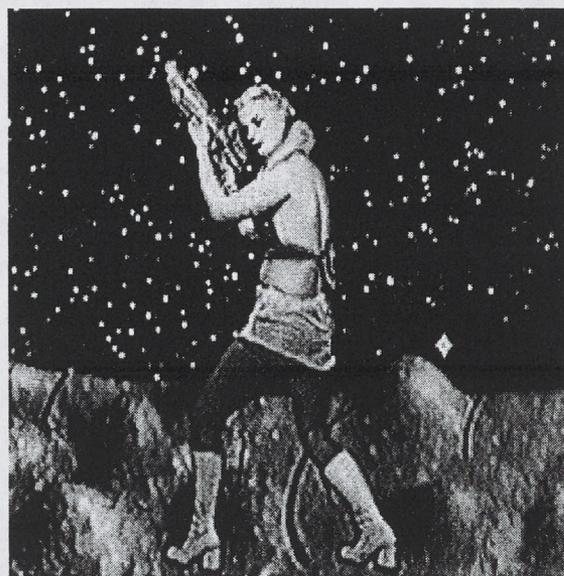

VideoOut (Vancouver) 604/872-8449

My Very Own After School Special

Allyson Mitchell 5 min VHS

Girl dumps girl in the high school cafeteria. This short video tells the bittersweet tale of teenage love and anguish in the hostile battleground known as "the best years of your life." Based on a poem by 17 year-old upstart Magen Rivers Moore. Allyson Mitchell (Toronto) 416/516-2516

INTERMISSION

Untitled (My Mama)

Lynne Chan 10 min VHS

Footage of Hong Kong superstars and shots of teetering wind-up toys are punctuated with Chan's pithy comments about how her mother deals with a post-modern world.

Lynne Chan (Los Angeles) 310/452-8373

Tomboy

Donna Carter 5 min 16mm

In this autobiographical short video, a girl's determination to follow her own hoop dreams makes her a college basketball star and the publisher of the first ever women-in-sports magazine. Frameline 415/703-8650

Swell

Carolynne Hew 5 min 16mm

A lush experimental film about desire and disembodiment, Swell employs hand scratching and digital effects to evoke a woman's flight from concrete to nature—spurred on by a kiss. Carolynne Hew (Toronto) 416/531-7052

essential things

LeAnn Erickson 7 min 3/4"

In an age of phone calls and e-mail, written letters still occupy a space allowing for the exploration of loss, memory and time as feelings and thoughts are shared with another. essential things is a collection of "letters" that could not be sent, documenting Erickson's four-month separation from her family. LeAnn Erickson (Leominster, MA) 978/840-2589

POM

Mocha Jean Herrup/Joanna Ingalls 19 min 3/4"

This hilarious documentary follows Ingalls, a punked-out University of Texas slacker girl, in her efforts to join the hard-bodied ranks of the pom squad.

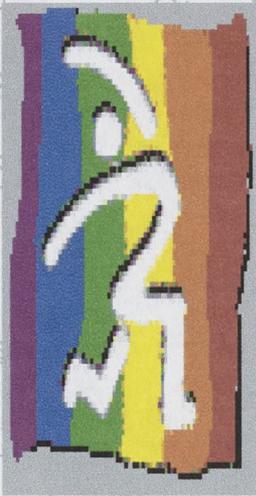

Mocha Jean Herrup (Austin) 512/452-6105

Vanilla Lament

Catherine Crouch 5:30 min 16mm

Hey there Georgie girl... Post-break-up lesbian goes from blue to buff in this witty experimental film that combines scratch techniques, live action and Barbie-doll animation that might startle Mattel.

Catherine Crouch (Chicago) 773/764-6648

Proclamation

HATE-FREE CAMPUS CAMPAIGN DAY

WHEREAS, we strive to live in communities where everyone is free from persecution and harassment based upon race, age, gender, religion, sexual orientation, and physical or mental ability; and

WHEREAS, in San Diego County, 90 hate crimes were reported in 1998 and 119 hate crimes were reported in 1999; and

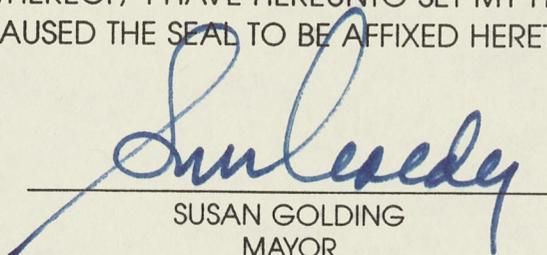

WHEREAS, in order to combat and prevent hate crimes and propaganda, the City of San Diego's Human Relations Commission has developed a "Say No To Hate" program to increase community awareness and respond to ignorance and prejudice; and

WHEREAS, the City of San Diego's Human Relations Commission and the University of California, San Diego, with its new "Hate-Free Campus Campaign," have taken a proactive stance against intolerance and hatred in our community; and

WHEREAS, on April 24, 2000, a symposium dedicated to eradicating hate and intolerance will be held at the University of California, San Diego;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, SUSAN GOLDING, the Thirty-second Mayor of the City of San Diego, do hereby proclaim April 24, 2000, to be "HATE-FREE CAMPUS CAMPAIGN DAY" in San Diego, for the purpose of ending hate and encouraging tolerance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND, THIS DAY,
