I nominate:

Heather Flowe
Psychology Graduate Student

Because....

it was her energy that often sustained the efforts of S.A.F.E. (student alliance for fairness and equality). She put in many long hours to establish and build coalitions, raise awareness about queer issues, combat homophobia and empower other student activists. We have much to thank her for....

Karen Orberg
Revelle College Senior

Because....

she has put countless time and energy into promoting visibility for the LGBT community. She has been a principle member of LGBTA and a peer counselor for several years. She serves to educate, support and provide a role model for other students. UCSD will be graduating an awesome individual...

Ernesto Moreno

Because...

he continues to work to provide support to queer students. He has provided safe space of undergraduate men to explore their sexual orientations by facilitating a peer group for gay men. He has worked to promote the Queer Youth Conference, reaching out to youth, encouraging them by facilitating education, connections and serving as a role model.

Mikeah Jennings

Because...

he continues to work to provide support to queer students. He has the ability to engage and audience and provide valuable education in a manner that people can hear what he has to say.

Erin Harrell
Muir Sophomore

Because...

she has been an active member of the queer community on campus, and through this provided a role model to other students. She has worked to create alliances between the Jewish and LGBT communities. In her role as a peer counselor, she has provided support to many individuals beginning to look at their own sexual orientation.

Vanessa Teran
TMC Junior

Because...
she has spent countless hours organizing and promoting the first Queer Youth Conference in San Diego. It was her idea and energy that brought together students, youth, scholars, and various organizations from all over San Diego and L.A. She serves as a role model for queer youth of color....how to be out and proud.

Scott Heath
Revelle Senior

Because.. he has worked tirelessly on a historical archive of LGBT events, activities, resources and the like here at UCSD. His energy was a significant contributor to the creation of the LGBT Resource Office.

Sarah Archibald
Faculty

Because...
she has provided energy and guidance to the LGBT Resource Office. She has put in countless hours serving as a member of the UC wide LGBTTA, addressing issues like equal housing and benefits for all staff and faculty.

ALL PEOPLE'S

CELEBRATION

recognizing those who have advanced community and diversity

Thursday, May 26, 2000

5:00 - 8:00 p.m.

Cross Cultural Center

The Cross Cultural Center will host its 5th annual All People's Recognition Ceremony on Thursday, May 26th, 2000, as part of its Cross Cultural Center Celebration (C-4) week. The goal of the Ceremony is to recognize campus individuals and organizations who contribute their time, effort, and energy to increase multicultural understanding at UCSD and in the surrounding community. We believe these people have helped the CCC to fulfill its mission of "building community from the ground up", and the All People's Day Celebration is a chance to recognize their contributions.

Please take this opportunity to nominate someone (student, staff, or faculty) whom you feel has contributed to diversity and community at UCSD, by filling out the information on the reverse. Thank you!

INTRODUCING ...

"LOVE MAKES A FAMILY" ART EXHIBIT

Family Diversity Projects, Inc.

This photo-text exhibit presents photographs taken by Gigi Kaeser and interviews conducted by Peggy Gillespie and Jean Beard with twenty families whose lives are affected by schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, obsessive compulsive disorder, major depression, anxiety disorders, and other brain disorders. The photos and text in this exhibit dispel harmful stereotypes, myths and misconceptions about mental illness.

"TOLERANCE ZONES" ART EXHIBIT

Artist Rosemarie McKeon

McKeon, a current MFA Visual Arts student at UCSD, presents a series of maps representing regional economic, social, and environmental tolerance issues. Her works include 1990 Census undercount areas, hate crimes, reported incidence of police abuse, Native American territory changes, SAT scores, her understanding of EHC's Toxic Neighborhood Campaign, and current controversial work covering the history of redlining in San Diego. The various maps resemble transparent shoji screens, which the viewer can move, interact with, and juxtapose one regional tolerance zone with another.

DIVERSITY PEER MENTOR PROGRAM

The goal of the Diversity Peer Mentor program is to promote positive campus climate and a genuine appreciation for diversity and multiculturalism within the university environment, through the facilitation of dialogue and interaction concerning issues of individual identity, group membership, and cross-cultural understanding. Teams of Diversity Peer Mentors are available to conduct customized workshops or dialogues around these issues for groups of student leaders, resident advisors, first-year students, or student organizations. The Diversity Peer Mentor program will be available beginning fall quarter 2000.

"We exist in relation to one another in this space of shared differences and commonalities. In our efforts to build community, we gather on COMMON GROUND--- to break barriers, and challenge ideas, to affirm experiences and empower ourselves. Our lives, together with the words and images we leave behind, allow us to relate and remember..."
