CINCO DE MAYO CELEBRATED AT UCSD

The public is invited to participate in the annual Cinco de Mayo celebration at the University of California, San Diego May 5, 11 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

The free festivities will take place in front of the Main Gym and include Aztec dancing by Danza Azteca, mariachis, UCSD's Ballet Folklorico and a Grove Gallery art show featuring "Art From the Day of the Dead." Authentic Mexican food will also be served for $2.00 a plate.

The Cinco de Mayo celebration is sponsored by MECHA, a Chicano student organization, and co-sponsored by the Associated Students; the Students for Affirmative Action Committee; the Third World Studies; Joe Watson, UCSD's vice chancellor for undergraduate affairs; the Chancellor's Office and the University Events Office.

For more information, contact MEChA, at 534-4994.
