The New Year's celebration will also feature Chinese music, songs and operas, door prizes, and dancing which will be open to the public and will start about 9:30 pm. That's Saturday, Feb. 12 at 7 pm, North Dining Hall, Revell Cafeteria -- all for $4.00 a person. Reservations only; all proceeds will go to the Rho Psi Foundation Scholarship Fund in Asia.

Rho Psi Fraternity is an international fraternity founded in 1916 at Cornell University. Since the date of its founding, the Fraternity has functioned as an organization through which overseas Chinese meet and make lasting friendships. Rho Psi Fraternity has expanded activities to include aids to persons of Chinese descent in their pursuit of higher education, aids to overseas Chinese in helping them to recognize and appreciate their cultural heritage, and aids to world understanding by introducing various aspects of cultural heritage of China to other peoples. These programs are administered by the Rho Psi Foundation, Inc., a non-profit organization incorporated in New York in 1965.

Come and celebrate the Year of the Rat with your Asian brothers and sisters, and sample a little Chinese culture.
