

Media Advisory - Plaque dedication to honor Frieda and Harold Urey

October 5, 1979

EVENT: PLAQUE DEDICATION TO HONOR FRIEDA AND HAROLD UREY

LOCATION: South side of Urey Hall, Revelle College, UC San Diego

DATE: Tuesday, October 9, 1979

TIME: 11 a.m.

REMARKS: Brief ceremonies will be held to dedicate a plaque honoring Harold and Frieda Urey. The plaque, purchased by the Department of Chemistry, has been placed on the south side of Urey Hall. Chemistry professor James Arnold, a colleague and friend of the Ureys' for many years, and several others will deliver brief remarks. Urey Hall, the first academic building constructed on the UC San Diego campus, was completed in 1963. It was formally dedicated in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Urey on May 22, 1966.
