

Robert C. Ritchie named Special Assistant to the Chancellor

December 17, 1986

Media Contact: Paul Lowenberg, 534-3120

Robert C. Ritchie, professor of history at the University of California, San Diego, has been named Special Assistant to Chancellor Richard C. Atkinson.

In his new position, Ritchie will assist the chancellor in liaison with the faculty, students, senior administrative staff and the local community.

Ritchie has been on the UCSD faculty for nearly 20 years and during that time he has served on a wide variety of Academic Senate and administrative committees as well as being active in the affairs of Muir College.

(December 17, 1986)