

Calendar Item, UCSD Gospel Choir to perform Sponsored by Contemporary Black Arts Program

February 4, 1987

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE CALENDAR ANNOUNCEMENT

The UCSD Gospel Choir will perform at 8 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 7, in the Mandeville Center Auditorium at the University of California, San Diego, in UCSD Black History Month's Festival of Gospel Music. Some of the songs to be sung by the UCSD Gospel Choir are: "My God How Excellent is Thy Name," "How I Got Over," and "I'll Go."

The following gospel choirs will take part in the festival: Morningside High School Gospel Choir of Inglewood, California; the Voices of Fulfillment of San Diego; and the choral ensemble Perfect Praise Foundation. General admission is $2; tickets are available from TicketMaster outlets, the UCSD Box Office, and at the door. For information, call 534-4559.

Media contact: Bonnie Ward, Contemporary Black Arts Program, 534-0670 or Alixandra Williams, Public Information Office, 534-3120

(February 4, 1987)