An Introduction to Transgender Health (or Lack Thereof)

An Introduction To Transgender Health March 7, 2018; 12:00-1:00PM CRSF 2nd Floor Conference Room 228 A and B

Daniella Nicole McDonald is a San Diego native and went to UCSD for her undergraduate training, getting a dual degree in Human Biology and Theater followed by a Masters in Biology. She is currently a 3rd year MD and PhD student at UCSD School of Medicine, studying in the Biomedical Sciences Department working on 3D Bioprinting of Manufactured Organ Tissues.

She is the first openly out transgender woman in the School of Medicine. Daniella is the founder and organizer of "Transgender: Waves of Viability" at UCSD and this past year flew to Dr. Marc Steiner, who's made previous appearances on Oprah, to give a talk on transgender history as a transgender woman herself. Daniella won the "Outstanding Graduate Student Leader" award this year for her advancements in UCSD's medical curriculum and expansion of opportunities to learn about transgender health. Her career interests lie in Plastic Surgery and Regenerative Medicine, advancement of medical education, and designing a trans-inclusive and specific clinic and surgical suite catering to all needs of trans patients.

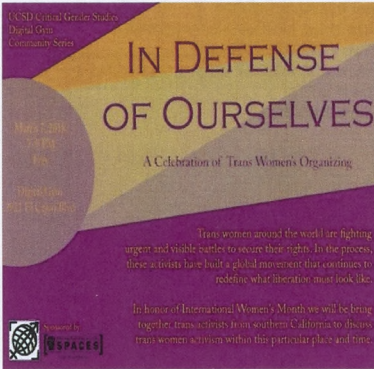

A brief overview on best practices in caring for the transgender patient population. This talk is centered around health needs and disparities as it relates to the transgender community for those in need to address best practices without a social context of the immediate emergency this community is in.

Come out to our Brown Bag Series on March 7, 2018!

The GEH Brown Bag series is an opportunity for the campus community to present either works in progress or completed works in an informal setting. Our speaker for this Brown Bag series is Daniella McDonald, the first openly out transgender woman in the School of Medicine. Daniella will be discussing transgender surgery as a transgender woman herself. The talk will be centered around health needs and disparities as it relates to the transgender community. If you have any questions email eup023@ucsd.edu.

"In Defense of Ourselves: Celebration of Trans Women's Organizing"
March 7, 2018; 7:00-9:00PM
Digital Gym (2921 El Cajon Blvd. San Diego, CA 92104

Trans women around the world are fighting urgent and visible battles to secure their rights. In the process, these activists have built a global movement that continues to redefine what liberation must look like. In honor of International Women's Month we will be bringing together trans activists from southern California to discuss trans women's activism within this particular place and time.

This event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

FtM: Scouting the Unknown Ryan Sallans
March 7, 2018; 7:00-9:00PM
SDSU Student Union Theater

Since 2005, Ryan's transition story, Scouting the Unknown, has been captivating audiences on university campuses nationwide. Ryan first covers basic terminology and language surrounding sex assigned at birth, gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation. He then moves into terminology surrounding transgender and nonbinary identities, and explains gender identity development. His talk will also discuss the relationship between body image and sexuality, and the complexities of body acceptance and transgender identities.

San Diego Pride Volunteer Youth Programs Coordinator Hiring

San Diego Pride is looking for students to fill the Volunteer Youth Programs Coordinator positions for the year! The Youth Programs Coordinator reports to the Youth Programs Manager and is responsible for overseeing various programs for LGBTQ youth. You must have one year of experience working with youth or teens to qualify. To apply, send resume to jshc@sdpride.org.

Community Support Groups

Coming Out Group
Tuesdays, 4:00-5:30PM
Small Meeting Room | Women's Center

The Coming Out group is a place to meet and gain support while discussing your sexual and/or gender identities in a confidential setting. This group is for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, straight, or questioning folks who are coming out, considering coming out or may already be out. Topics are determined by group participants and can include stress, fear, anxiety, loneliness, family/cultural issues, excitement and celebration with regard to coming out. The group is open to new members the first 4 meetings of each quarter and then closes to maintain safe space.

OPEN MIC NIGHT: MY, YOUR, OUR STORY

History, they say, is written by the "victors" but those stories often lack the complexities and realities of our lives.

In the spirit of Women's Herstory Month, we want to open up space to question the histories we've been told and listen to those who too often are told to be silent.

Join us in celebrating the stories of our community at My, Your, Our Story, a night of spoken word and community building. We invite all community members to share their stories of resilience, persistence, activism, love and finding their voice.

If you'd like to sign up in advance to perform, please email peretz@ucsd.edu
