Upcoming Events

Pizza Rolls, Not Gender Roles
Thursday, May 3, 2018
4:30-6:30PM | Dolores Huerta Room

Come learn about gender expression and the accessibility to the means of expression. After the program there will be a queer/trans clothing swap where people are encouraged to donate clothes or other products and take stuff that aligns with their gender expression. Things to think about donating include: clothes, makeup, deodorant, binders, jewelry/accessories, hair products, cologne/perfume, shoes, etc. This is an open space for anyone to attend and donate, however we ask that only folks in the LGBTQIA+ community receive the donated items. All leftover donated items will be given to a local trans/queer clothing swap. You do not need to donate in order to receive, but donating is highly encouraged if you can

OUT AND PROUD

more than you can see

Out and Proud Week presents the largest opportunity for community visibility on the UC San Diego campus. It is a week-long group celebration and private reflection on the achievements of LGBTQIA+ identified students, staff, and faculty and our allies. It is also a time for public awareness and discussion of current LGBTQIA+ issues on the state and national levels.

While historically this week has been called Out and Proud Week, experiences of Pride movements and narratives of coming out need critical examination. Not everyone is out nor wants or needs to be, coming out is not a single action and is different around sexuality, romantic attraction, gender identities and expressions, and for many coming out and expressions of pride may not be safe. We appreciatively challenge what being Out and Proud means and honor the diversity within our community.

MINDFUL EDUCATION

mental health workshop in collaboration with the CAPS peer educators

Wed. April 25th @ 5:00-7:00 PM

LGBT Resource Center Conference Room

Join the LGBT Resource Center for our mental health workshop!

This workshop was intended to help people with mental illness and those who wish to support their friends. We will go over ways to cope with difficulty and methods for dealing with crisis moments.

This workshop was previously named
"Here Comes a Thought".

LGBTQ HEALTH DISPARITIES PANEL DISCUSSION

APRIL 26, 2018
12:00 - 1:00 PM
GEISEL LIBRARY, SEUSS ROOM

Celebrate Out and Proud Week! The University of California San Diego Library and the LGBT Resource Center invite you to hear from UC San Diego health care providers about their experiences serving our community and issues relating to disparities in LGBTQ health service.

Please join our lunchtime presentation and discussion. Learn about a range of topics including San Diego County physicians' attitudes toward LGBT patients, mental health disparities in the LGBT community, clinical support for transgender children, and providing culturally competent HIV care. Panelists will present for approximately 10 minutes each, and there will be a Q&A session to follow.

Panelists include:

Gregory E. Koch, Psy.D., Psychologist at UCSD's Muir College

Maja Marinkovic, MD, Co-Director of the Gender Management Clinic at Rady Children's & Endocrinologist

Chris Matthews, MD, Director of Research Infrastructure, Owen Clinic & Professor of Clinical Medicine

Amy Sitapati, MD, Medical Director, La Jolla Internal Medicine, & Clinical Professor of Medicine

A light lunch will be provided. We look forward to seeing you there!

CONFERENCE ROOM

Come join the Multi-Identity Art Collective for our artspace on behalf of Out and Proud week! Come be around fellow art lovers and amateurs as we reflect on and express our feelings on identity and pride.

New to art? Don't worry! We love new faces and we'll be doing painting walkthroughs for those less confident or those who aren't sure what to draw!

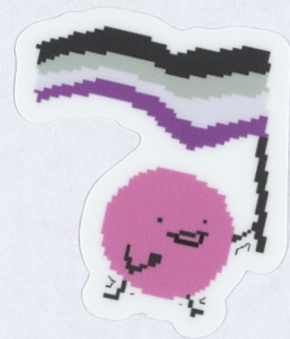

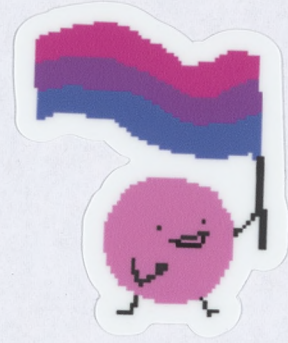

WHAT IS MIAC?

The Multi-Identity Art Collective is a big family of artists from different experience levels, majors, and backgrounds.

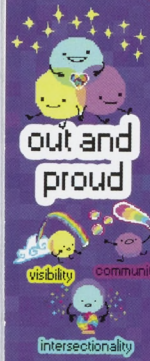

We accept any major, whether art related or not, and welcome amateurs and experts alike! Come make art in community with other artists!
