We Are Abroad

January 23, 2018; 5:00-7:00PM
Black Resource Center Conference Room

We Are Abroad is an in depth study abroad workshop lead by the fantastic study abroad advisor, Andra Jacques. Andra will give a presentation on how to start your journey abroad; she will go through the different study abroad programs that UC San Diego offers, the components of a study abroad application, and an example scholarship application. The workshop will also consist of testimonials of the experiences from Black study abroad returnees.

If you are at all interested in studying abroad while you are here at UCSD, this is an amazing opportunity to help you begin that process.

 This is a closed Black space **

Raza Resource Centro Internship

The central mission of the Raza Resource Centro (Raza RC) is to provide a welcoming and supportive space for critical programming around a broad range of Chicana/Latina social justice issues where students can learn about their identity, academic and professional opportunities, and trends affecting the Latinx community. Interns are the foundation of Raza RC and are situated to be in continual conversation with career staff about what student centeredness means at UC San Diego. Students will be chosen as Interns based on their proven leadership experience, potential to contribute to the mission and development of the Raza Resource Centro, and
