~~of~~ I don't know what
was on the twin mattress

(beside the Mohair shards). It is interesting to me that I got red of everything red, (I mean Glaucous Scorpions I
written in red except for Scorpions which is purplish green) I mean I see these colors on the words as I write them.
The ink is black or blue

Red was the color of the fire that burnt, rather than the golden color of the sun, so at some point the summer. After I had worn yellow I see
 all spring & late early summer - I throw out all the reds. The lowest color, as ~~Paul~~ said. I don't know - to me

of a warm red color,

the color of the wood

which I never experienced.

But that was later. I just got red of red I don't think I was it after

~~Monday~~ Sunday,

I was gold & grey - the

summer colors - the color of the sun &

the moon - but wait

That's a whole other story. Last year at the time I was ^{at my parents} ~~in the~~

(and he had died)

~~Sam~~ was in my loft.

We had taken our 2nd trip together. But I think I wrote that

plus the sink story

the day today it will be too much so the ~~Sam~~

story - the day that slatted all this, well come later when I've caught up to say, day 49 a perhaps later. So back to today hell day 6. I'm taking dissicated liver now almost every day - I feel a lot better. Ah yes, my ass
has a pink red rash!
Plus a few purple pimples.

Son day fore after
my upstairs neighbor
had left I think I took a shower. If I did it was my last one. The shower is metal
enclosed. So here another problem. I don't remember exactly. Spots.
No I didn't take a shower - I couldn't get in the

shaver - The metal repelled me. It was the last day's matter
of fact that I used the tablet. The purple
had soaked into the bathroom - or whatever -
the water pushed me
right back into the
a small room, the man was coming

as the glass didn't hurt, that is the vibration couldn't be so apparent to hurt
 my right eye but the water from the shower
 pushed me right back
 out 2 feet or so away supporting. It was becoming clear to me at that point that metal stone or mat, that have

(it seems) absorbed or reflected ^{or returned} the purple waves more than any other material. As I don't know if I took a
shaver or just tried to
but to be enclosed by metal on 3 sides would be to throw my body
from side to side in separation. Beside

the energy bouncing off the light metal faucet
washed
hit my eye when I was light sensitive. And the purple was near to
back side of my body
the light green was
near to my back side.
I realized that all the
clothes I had brought were at least bright

green - that I wasn't possible to buy clothe
that were a ^{safer} ~~better~~ color!
than that. One had to take them home &
wash them & wear
them in order to cool
them out. I kept wondering what I would do for
