

UCSD's third annual Homecoming Oct. 23-24

October 9, 1998

Media Contact: Pat JaCoby, (619) 534-7404 or pjacoby@ucsd.edu

CALENDAR ANNOUNCEMENT

Two days of activities showcasing state-of-the-art technology, lectures by world renowned faculty, class reunions, athletic competition, special student activities and a campuswide family picnic and fair are on tap for UCSD's third annual Homecoming Oct. 23-24. The public is welcome to attend.

Events begin Oct. 23 with an International Fair at 10 a.m. on Library Walk, followed by a 5K run/walk at noon from RIMAC field. The keynote address at 9:30 a.m. Oct. 24 in the Price Center will be given by Irwin Jacobs, chairman and CEO of QUALCOMM. Faculty presentations to follow will range from a talk on Why Can't Chopin Play Boogie? to Visualizing the Molecular World.

A $15 fee in advance registration includes all faculty presentations, continental breakfast, family barbecue picnic and UCSD mementos. A late registration fee of $5 will be charged after Oct. 20 and to all walk-in participants.

For registration and information call the Alumni Office, (619) 534-3900.

(October 9, 1998)