A photograph of a book spine, oriented vertically. The spine is divided into three color sections: a green section at the top, a white section in the middle, and a green section at the bottom. A blue, curved handle is attached to the top green section. A white label is affixed to the white section of the spine, containing the text "mss006_b01_f19". The book is set against a plain, light-colored background.
